24 (b) The Division of Civil Rights and Public Trust may request a police agency to provide any additional 25 information deemed necessary to effectuate the Division’s mission.
26 (c) The Division of Civil Rights and Public Trust shall post on the Division’s website annually the number and 27 nature of violations of § 1304 of this title.”.

SYNOPSIS

This Amendment does all of the following:

(1) Revises the hate crime reporting requirements to better reflect current practice and to establish an annual report published by the Division of Civil Rights and Public Trust on the number and nature of hate crimes in Delaware.

(2) Updates the existing fine for desecration of a burial place to mirror the fine threshold set in Title 11 for class A misdemeanors. It makes the new requirement for restitution and community service at the court's discretion and removes the elevation of desecration and cross burning to maintain the offense level at the current level.
