

SPONSOR: Sen. Simpson & Sen. Ennis & Sen. Lawson &

Rep. Carson

Sens. Hansen, Pettyjohn; Reps. Briggs King, Outten, Paradee, Wilson, Yearick

DELAWARE STATE SENATE 149th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SENATE BILL NO. 36

AN ACT TO AMEND TITLE 3 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO STRAY LIVESTOCK.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE:

1	Section 1. Amend Chapter 77, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
2	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
3	§ 7700. Definitions
4	As used in this chapter:
5	(1) "Agent of the department" means a person who acts on behalf of the Department to carry out its
6	activities.
7	(2) "At large" means livestock that strays from confinement or restraint and from the property of the
8	owner including livestock that strays into a confined area that is owned by a person other than the owner of the
9	livestock.
0	(3) "Department" means the Department of Agriculture.
1	(4) "Livestock" means domesticated species including: bovine, camelid, cervid, equine, swine, ruminants,
12	ratites, rabbits, poultry, and other animals harvested for food, fiber, fur, or leather.
13	(5) "Unenclosed lands" means lands, other than the livestock owner's property, where the livestock
14	would be able to run loose, free of confinement, or otherwise unrestrained by the livestock owner.
15	Section 2. Amend § 7701, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
16	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
17	§ 7701. Permitting livestock to run at large; civil penalty.
18	Any person permitting livestock to run at large on the public highways or unenclosed lands within this State shall
19	be tried before a justice of the peace or the Court of Common Pleas for the county in which the offense occurred and, if
20	found guilty, shall receive a fine, which may not be suspended, of not less than $25 nor more than $200 for each offense.
21	(a) It is unlawful to allow livestock to run at large, on the public highways, or on unenclosed lands within the
22	State.

LC: DIG: RAY 5971490020

Page 1 of 5

Released: 03/20/2017 02:55 PM

23	(b) The Secretary of Agriculture may impose a civil penalty of not less than $50 or more than $100 for each
24	offense on any person owning livestock found to have run at large, on the public highways, or on unenclosed land within
25	the State. For each subsequent offense occurring within 12 months of a prior offense, the person is subject to a civil penalty
26	not less than $100 or more than $200 for each offense. The minimum civil penalty for a subsequent offense may not be
27	subject to suspension.
28	(b) No civil penalty shall be assessed unless the person charged has been given notice and opportunity for a
29	hearing on each charge under Chapter 101 of Title 29.
30	(c) All civil penalties collected under this chapter must be remitted to the Department or other assigned agency.
31	Section 3. Amend § 7702, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
32	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
33	§ 7702. Taking up and impounding stray-livestock at large.
34	(a) Any person or resident owning land in this State-agent of the Department may take up any livestock found
35	running at large upon the public highways or on lands owned by that person at large, upon the public highways, or or
36	unenclosed lands within this State and impound the same. Such person or agent of the Department may demand and received
37	a reasonable sum for the eareimpoundment, care, and feeding of the animal or animals livestock while in such person's
38	care. The care and shelter provided shall be humane and shall be adequate for the size and class of livestock impounded
39	The State Veterinarian, a county extension agent of the county in which the livestock is impounded and a livestock owner
40	of the same county_Veterinarian will be responsible for determining if the animal or animals_livestock are being housed
41	and fed properly as well as determining a fair and reasonable cost for impoundment, care, and feeding per day.
42	(b) The person or agent of the Department taking up and impounding the livestock shall forthwith give writter
43	notice of the taking up and impounding to the owner thereof, if known, or by leaving the notice with an adult person at the
44	owner's or their usual place of abode; or, if unknown, shall place a notice of 3 days duration in 2-local newspapers at least 2
45	forms of media, including 1 print, adequately describing the livestock and giving an accurate location where the livestock
46	was found, and the name, address address, and telephone number of the person holding the animal or animals livestock.
47	(c) Any person or agent of the Department taking up and impounding livestock under this chapter who refuses on
48	neglects to give notice as provided in this section, shall be liable to the owner of such live stock in civil damages, to be
49	recovered in a civil action before a justice of the peace-Justice of the Peace Court or the Court of Common Pleas of the
50	county in which the live stock was taken up.

Section 4. Amend § 7703, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and

Released: 03/20/2017 02:55 PM

insertions as shown by underline as follows:

51

53	§ 7703. Damage by stray-livestock at large.
54	(a) Upon the application of any person, or the person's agent, sustaining any damage by reason of the livestock
55	running at large contrary to this chapter, the person or person's agent may seek restitution from any justice of the peace_a
56	Justice of the Peace Court or the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which damage was incurred by livestock, which
57	may or may not have been taken up and impounded. impounded, shall designate the State Veterinarian, a county extension
58	agent and a livestock owner of the county in which the damage was incurred, who shall estimate said damages and make a
59	report to the justice or Court, in writing, under their hands or the hands of the majority of them, the amount of damage
60	estimated. The justice or Court shall immediately give notice thereof to the parties interested. The damages so ascertained,
61	together with the legal charges for impounding and keeping the livestock, shall be paid by the person claiming the stock
62	before the same shall be delivered.
63	(b) If the owner of livestock cannot be located or identified and the livestock is taken up by the State, the State
64	shall be held harmless for damages committed by the livestock.
65	Section 5. Amend § 7704, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
66	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
67	§ 7704. Sale of strays. Livestock disposition.
68	(a) In case If the livestock is not claimed and all legal charges satisfied in accordance with this chapter within $\frac{10}{2}$
69	days, the person having the livestock in charge shall have the option to turn over ownership for adoption or advertise the
70	livestock to be sold at public sale, sale.
71	(b) Notice of the livestock sale under subsection (a) of this section must be provided as follows:
72	(1) If the owner is unknown, by placing a notice giving the particulars of the sale in 2 local newspapers at
73	least 2 forms of media, including one print, for a duration of 3 days and days.
74	(2) If the owner is known, by giving a copy of the notice to the owner of the livestock, if known,
75	livestock or by leaving the same with an adult person at his usual place of abode.
76	(b) (c) At the time fixed in the advertisement, the person having the livestock in charge shall proceed to sell the
77	livestock, but may postpone the sale for good and sufficient cause. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting all legal
78	charges, shall must be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the proceedings took place. The clerk
79	shall hold the proceeds for 6 months, unless sooner claimed by some person proving himself or herself to be the real owner
80	of the livestock. If not so claimed, the proceeds shall be turned over to the Department of Agriculture.

Released: 03/20/2017 02:55 PM

81	(d) The State and the Department make no representation as to the health of any livestock sold or adopted under
82	this chapter and may not be held liable for any damages pursuant to the sale or adoption of livestock sold or adopted under
83	this chapter.
84	Section 6. Amend § 7705, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
85	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
86	§ 7705. Exceptions.
87	This chapter shall not apply to eattle or other stock in charge_livestock in the care of a drover using due diligence
88	in the control thereof, or to eattle or their stock_livestock which accidentally escapes from the enclosures care of the drover.
89	Proof of these circumstances shall always be admitted so that no injustice to the owners be inflicted in consequence thereof.
90	Section 7. Amend § 7706, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
91	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
92	§ 7706. Accidental escape of livestock; liability of owners.
93	No-An owner, or other person in charge of eattle or other-livestock, who receives 25% or more of the person's
94	annual gross income from the sale of agricultural products or the resale of animals grown, raised, or produced for food,
95	fiber, fur or leather shall be is not responsible in any action by reason of cattle or other-livestock accidentally escaping from
96	their enclosure and straying at large, on any public highway highway, or on unenclosed lands within of this State unless the
97	owner or other person in charge thereof has intentionally negligently allowed the livestock to escape or unless he or she is
98	guilty of negligence in the care of the eattle or other-livestock.
99	Section 8. Amend § 7707, Title 3 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strikethrough and
100	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
101	§ 7707. Enforcement; disposition of fines civil penalties.
102	The Department has the authority for administering and enforcing this chapter and may promulgate regulations to
103	administer and enforce this chapter. The Delaware State Police, local police officers of the community in which the offense
104	took place, and agents of the Department of Agriculture shall enforce this chapter prohibiting livestock running at large.
105	Department of Health and Social Services' Office of Animal Welfare shall assist the Department, at the request of the
106	Department. All fines civil penalties imposed for violations of the stray livestock laws this chapter shall be paid to the
107	Department of Agriculture. Department. Any civil penalties collected by the Department under this section are hereby appropriated to the Department to carry out the purposes of this section. The Department of Health and Social Services' animal welfare officers shall assist the Department of Agriculture, at the request of the Department of Agriculture.

Released: 03/20/2017 02:55 PM

108

SYNOPSIS

This Act more effectively and efficiently clarifies the enforcement authority of the Department of Agriculture regarding livestock at large. The offenses will now be civil penalties rather than criminal fines, expenses for impoundment will be reimbursed by the violator, and other sources of media can be used to give public notice of impoundment or sale of any livestock at large. This Act is intended to penalize repeat offenders that knowingly let their livestock run at large.

Author: Senator Simpson

Page 5 of 5 LC : DIG : RAY Released: 03/20/2017 02:55 PM