HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
149th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE BILL NO. 163

AN ACT TO AMEND TITLE 30 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO THE INCOME TAX RETURN.

1 WHEREAS, the number of "check-off" boxes for charitable donations on the Delaware personal income tax return
2 has grown unchecked and has become unwieldy; and

3 WHEREAS, data shows that the total number of dollars contributed to charitable donations through the check-offs
4 on the income tax return has not grown along with the proliferation of eligible organizations; and

5 WHEREAS, the continued addition of new donation boxes has led to set pool of funds being distributed over a
6 larger pool of candidates, decreasing the usefulness of the mechanism to any one charity; and

7 WHEREAS, it is the belief of the General Assembly that the number of eligible charitable donations on the 8 income tax return should be capped for efficiency of administration by the Department of Revenue and the avoidance of 9 donor fatigue; and

10 WHEREAS, the Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Trust Fund and the U.S. Olympic have consistently ranked at 11 or near the bottom in terms of total dollars contributed in the last 5 tax years.

§ 1180. Administration of charitable donations through the personal income tax return.

No more than 21 charitable organizations or funds may be included on the personal income tax return for purposes of donations by taxpayers.

SYNOPSIS

Currently there are 17 "check-boxes" on the Delaware personal income tax return where taxpayers may designate a portion of their refund or send additional money with their payment due to be credited as a charitable donation to various organizations. The number of organizations has continued to grow over the years without any charities being removed. As a result, a relatively stable total amount of donations is being spread across a larger number of causes, reducing the utility for any single charity and increasing the administrative burden on the Division of Revenue. This bill eliminates the two lowest grossing charitable funds - for the US Olympic Committee and for the Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness Trust Fund, and replaces them with Funds for the Beau Biden Foundation for the Protection of Children and the United Way of Delaware. It also adds a provision to the code capping the number of permissible charity check-offs on the return at 21.
