§ 3702. Eligibility for benefits; serious health condition; certification or documentation of leave.

(a) Beginning 1 year after the start of contributions under § 3705 of this title, and subject to subsection (c) of this section, family and medical leave benefits are payable to a covered individual who meets one of the following:

(1) Because of a birth, adoption, or placement through foster care of a child, is caring for the child during the first year after the birth, adoption, or placement of the child.

(2) Is caring for a family member with a serious health condition.

(3) Has a serious health condition that makes the covered individual unable to perform the functions of the covered individual’s position.

(4) Has a qualifying exigency.

(b) In applying and construing serious health condition, consideration must be given to the application and construction given to serious health condition under the FMLA.

(c)(1) An employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title shall collect and retain information from covered individuals verifying parental leave status, serious health condition, or qualifying exigency when a covered individual submits an application under this chapter. An employer shall require that a request for leave based on a serious health condition under paragraph (a)(2) or (a)(3) of this section be supported by a certification issued by the health care provider of the covered individual or of the family member of the covered individual, as appropriate. The covered individual shall provide, in a timely manner, a copy of the certification to the employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title.

(2) A certification required under paragraph (c)(1) of this section is sufficient if it includes all of the following:

a. The date on which the serious health condition commenced.

b. The probable duration of the condition.

c. The appropriate medical facts within the knowledge of the health care provider regarding the condition.

d. A statement of the following, as appropriate:

1. For purposes of leave under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, a statement that the covered individual is needed to care for the family member who has a serious health condition and an estimate of the time that the covered individual needs to care for the family member.

2. For purposes of leave under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, a statement that the covered individual is unable to perform the functions of the covered individual’s position.

e. If the leave is to be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule under § 3706 of this title for planned medical treatment, the dates on which the medical treatment is expected to be given and the duration of the medical treatment.

f. If the leave is to be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule under § 3706 of this title for purposes of leave under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, a statement that the covered individual’s intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule is necessary for the care of the family member who has the serious health condition, or will assist in the family member’s recovery, and the expected duration and schedule of the intermittent leave or reduced leave schedule.

g. If the leave is to be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule under § 3706 of this title for purposes of leave under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, a statement of the medical necessity of the intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule and the expected duration of the intermittent leave or reduced leave schedule.

(3)a. If the employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title has reason to doubt the validity of a certification provided under this subsection, the employer or private plan may require, at the expense of the employer or private plan, that the covered individual obtain the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the employer or private plan concerning any information certified under this subsection. A health care provider designated under this paragraph (c)(3)a. may not be employed on a regular basis by the employer, Department or private plan.

b. If the second opinion under paragraph (c)(3)a. of this section differs from the opinion in the original certification provided by the covered individual under this subsection, the employer or private plan may require, at the expense of the employer or private plan, that the employee obtain the opinion of a third health care provider designated or approved jointly by the employer or private plan and the covered individual concerning any information certified under this subsection. The third opinion is final and binding on the employer or private plan and the covered individual.

(4)a. The employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title may require that the covered individual obtain subsequent recertifications on a reasonable basis.

b. The standards for determining what constitutes a reasonable basis for recertification may be governed by a collective bargaining agreement between the employer or private plan and a labor organization which is the collective bargaining representative of the unit of which the covered individual is a part if such a collective bargaining agreement is in effect.

c. Unless otherwise required by the covered individual's health care provider, the employer or private plan may not require recertification more than once during a 30-day period and, in any case, may not unreasonably require recertification.

d. The employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title shall pay for any recertification that is not covered by the covered individual's health insurance.

(d) The employer or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title shall require that a request for leave based on a serious health condition under paragraph (a)(2) of this section of a family member be supported by documentation demonstrating the nature and extent of the relationship.

§ 3703. Duration of benefits.

(a) A covered individual is eligible for a maximum of 12 weeks of family and medical leave benefits in an application year.

(1) The maximum number of weeks during which parental leave benefits are payable under § 3702(a)(1) of this title in an application year is 12 weeks.

(2) The maximum aggregate number of weeks during which medical leave and family caregiving leave benefits are payable under § 3702(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(4) of this title in an application year is 6 weeks in any 24-month period.

(b) If 2 parents are entitled to leave under § 3702(a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(4) of this title and are employed by the same employer, the aggregate number of weeks of leave to which both may be entitled may be limited by the employer to 12 weeks during any 12-month period. The Department may adopt regulations limiting aggregate family caregiving leave claimed by multiple family members for the same qualifying event under § 3702(a) of this title.

(c) Except for parental leave benefits, and as permitted under § 3706 of this title, a covered individual is eligible for benefits under this chapter not more than once in a 24-month period.

(d) An employer must approve or deny an application for benefits under this section within 5 business days of receipt of a completed application that includes documentation necessary to review the claim. If the claim is denied, the employer shall notify the covered individual of the reason for the denial.

(e) The employer must notify the Department, in a manner determined by the Department, within 3 business days of a claim being approved under this chapter. The first payment of benefits to a covered individual must be made within 30 days after the employer has notified the Department of the approved claim. Subsequent payments must be made every 2 weeks.

(f) An employer with less than 25 employees may elect, with notice to the Department and employees, for each employee to exercise not less than half of the employee's parental leave for 5 years from the start of benefits under § 3702 of this title.

§ 3704. Amount of benefits.

(a) The amount of family and medical leave benefits is to be determined as follows:

(1) The weekly benefit must be 80% of the covered individual's average weekly wages rounded up to the nearest even $1.00 increment during the 12 months preceding submission of the application.

(2) The minimum weekly benefit may not be less than $100 a week, except that if the covered individual's average weekly wage is less than $100 a week, the weekly benefit must be the covered individual's full wage.

(3) The maximum weekly benefit in 2026 and 2027 must be $900. In each year after 2027, the maximum weekly benefit must increase in proportion to the annual average increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington Metropolitan area that is published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. In each year after 2027, the period of change must be calculated from October 2026 to the October before the start of the calendar year. When the Department determines a maximum weekly benefit amount using the Consumer Price Index under this paragraph (a)(3), the amount must be rounded to the nearest even $5.00 increment as determined in the discretion of the Secretary.

(b) Family and medical leave benefits are not payable for less than 1 work day of covered leave taken in 1 work week.

(c) The Department shall determine, by regulation, how benefits are to be calculated for covered individuals with more than 1 source of wages and when 12 months of wages preceding the submission of application for benefits are not available to the Department.

§ 3705. Contributions.

(a) Payroll contributions are authorized to finance the payment of benefits under this chapter. The Department shall regulate the deduction, withholding, and payment of the contribution.

(b) Beginning on January 1, 2025, for each employee, an employer shall quarterly, or more frequently as regulated by the Department, remit to the Fund contributions in the form and manner determined by the Department.

(1) The contribution rate for medical leave benefits is as follows:

a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for medical leave benefits as a percentage of wages is 0.4%.

b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for medical leave benefits as a percentage of wages based on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not set the contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of the medical leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to 125% of the cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar year, less the amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.

(2) The contribution rate for family caregiving leave benefits is as follows:

a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for family caregiving leave benefits as a percentage of wages is 0.08%.

b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for family caregiving leave benefits based as a percentage of wages on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not set the contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of the family caregiving leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to 125% of the cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar year, less the amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.

(3) The contribution rate for parental leave benefits is as follows:

a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for parental leave benefits as a percentage of wages is 0.32%.

b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for parental leave benefits as a percentage of wages based on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not set the contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of the parental leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to 125% of the cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar year, less the amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.

(c) Limitation on benefits and contribution rates; evidentiary standard.

(1) General. Notwithstanding a provision of this chapter to the contrary, this subsection controls with respect to benefits available under, and contributions required by, this chapter.

(2) Contribution rate; limitation.

a. For purposes of this subsection, "contribution rate" means the sum of the contribution rate for medical, family caregiving, and parental leave benefits.

b. If, after using the actuarial principles under § 3705(b) of this title, the Department determines that the contribution rate would exceed 1.00%, paragraph (c)(3) of this section applies.

(3) Contribution redetermination; benefits reduction. If, under paragraph (c)(2)b. of this section, the Department determines that the contribution rate effective as of the first day beginning on the next calendar year would exceed 1.00%, effective as of and for such calendar year the Department shall reduce the percentage of average weekly wages for employees from 80% to the lowest percentage of average weekly wages for employees as necessary to compute a contribution rate that does not exceed 1.00%.

(4) Preservation of Fund balance. Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, after using the actuarial principles under § 3705(b) of this title and considering other information deemed appropriate under the circumstances by the Secretary, the Secretary may at any time reduce the percentage of average weekly wages for employees to the lowest percentage of average weekly wages for employees as necessary to attempt to prevent the projected balance of the Fund during the ensuing 12 month period from falling below a specific balance or other actuarially sound measure adopted by the Department.

(5) Evidentiary standard. An allegation of abuse in the exercise of the discretion authorized by this section must be established by clear and convincing evidence of actual abuse of discretion in the court then having primary jurisdiction.

(d) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(1) of this section, an employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the contribution listed in subsection (b)(1) of this section.

(e) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(2) of this section, an employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the contribution listed in subsection (b)(2) of this section.

(f) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(3) of this section, an employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the contribution listed in subsection (b)(3) of this section.

(g) An employer's deduction from an employee's wages under this section may only be made concurrent with, and proportionate to, the liability incurred by the employer and the payment of wages to the employee. The employer is liable for the contribution at the time that wages are paid and shall remit the total contribution required under subsection (b) of this section to the Fund. If the employer fails to deduct wages of an employee when the wages are paid, the employer remains liable for the full amount of the contribution, including that amount not deducted from an employee's wages.

(h) A contribution that remains unpaid on the date it is due and payable, as determined by the Department, accrues interest, at a rate determined by the Department by regulation, from and after the due date until payment plus the accrued interest is received by the Fund. Interest collected under this section must be paid into the Fund.

(i)(1) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for medical leave benefits may not be required to remit the contributions required under subsection (b)(1) of this section.

(2) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for family caregiving leave benefits may not be required to remit the contributions required under subsection (b)(2) of this section.

(3) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for parental leave benefits may not be required to remit the contributions required under subsection (b)(3) of this section.

(j) The Department may require from an employer a sworn or unsworn report with respect to employees of the employer which the Department deems necessary for the effective administration of this chapter. Information provided to the Department in the report must be held confidential and must not be published or be open to public inspection, other than to employees of the Department, in a manner that reveals an employee's or employer's identity. However, an employer or employer's legal representative must be supplied with information from the report for purposes related to this chapter, and an employee or employee's legal representative must be supplied with information from the report that relates only to the employee for purposes related to this chapter.

(k) An employee and employer may opt to file a waiver of the payroll contributions required under this section when an employee's work schedule or length of employment with the employer is not expected to meet the requirements for eligibility for family and medical leave benefits.

(1) The employer shall provide notice to the employee that employee's work schedule or length of employment with the employer is not expected to meet the requirements for eligibility for family and medical leave benefits.

(2) The employee shall sign, and the employer shall submit to the Department, a form waiving the payroll contributions required under this section because employee's work schedule or length of employment with the employer is not expected to meet the requirements for eligibility for family and medical leave benefits.

(3) If, after an employee signs a waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section, the employee becomes eligible for family and medical leave benefits, the employee shall sign, and the employer shall submit to the Department, a form revoking the waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section. Deductions from wages may not begin until a waiver is revoked.

(4) The Department shall adopt a form for the waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section and the revocation of the waiver under paragraph (k)(3) of this section.

§ 3706. Reduced leave schedule.

(a) A covered individual may take covered leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule in which all of the leave authorized under this chapter is not taken sequentially. Intermittent or reduced leave may be taken only when medically necessary and supported by documentation as required by the certification requirements under § 3702 of this title. Family and medical leave benefits for intermittent or reduced leave schedules must be prorated.

(b) The covered individual shall provide the employer with prior notice of the schedule on which the covered individual will take the covered leave, to the extent practicable. Covered leave taken under this section may not result in a reduction of the total amount of leave to which an employee is entitled beyond the amount of leave actually taken.

(c) Nothing in this section is to be construed to entitle a covered individual to more leave than required under § 3703 of this this title.

§ 3707. Leave and employment protection.

(a) A covered individual who exercises the covered individual's right to family and medical leave benefits shall, on the expiration of the covered leave, be entitled to be restored by the employer to the position held by the covered individual when the covered leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment, including fringe benefits and service credits, which the covered individual had been entitled to at the commencement of the covered leave.

(b) During covered leave, the employer shall maintain any health care benefits the covered individual had before taking the leave for the duration of the leave as if the covered individual had continued in employment continuously from the date the covered individual commenced the leave until the date the family and medical leave benefits terminate. The covered individual shall continue to pay the covered individual's share of the cost of health care benefits as required before the commencement of the leave.

(c) An employer who violates this section or § 3708 of this title is liable to an employee affected for all of the following:

(1) Damages equal to all of the following:

a. The amount of any of the following:

1. Any wages or employment benefits denied or lost to the employee by reason of the violation.

2. In an action in which wages or employment benefits have not been denied or lost to the employee, any actual monetary losses sustained by the employee as a direct result of the violation, such as the cost of providing care, up to a sum equal to 12 weeks of wages or employment benefits for the employee.

b. Interest on the amount under paragraph (c)(1)a. of this section, calculated at the legal rate.

c. An additional amount as liquidated damages equal to the sum of the amount described in paragraph (c)(1)a. of this section and the interest under paragraph (c)(1)b. of this section. If an employer who has violated this section or § 3708 of this title proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act or omission that violated this section or § 3708 of this title was in good faith and that the employer had reasonable grounds for believing that the act or omission was not a violation of this section or § 3708 of this title, the court may reduce the amount of the liability to the amount and interest determined under paragraph(c)(1)a. and (c)(1)b. of this section, respectively.

(2) For equitable relief as may be appropriate, including employment, reinstatement, and promotion.

(d) An action under subsection (c) of this section may be maintained against an employer in a court of competent jurisdiction in this State by any 1 or more employees for and on behalf of the employees or the employees and other employees similarly situated.

(e)(1) The court in an action under subsection (c) of this section may, in addition to any judgment awarded to the plaintiff, award reasonable attorney fees, reasonable expert witness fees, and other costs of the action to be paid by the defendant.

(2) The court in an action under subsection (c) of this section shall award reasonable attorney fees to a defendant if the court finds the action was brought in bad faith.

(f) Except as provided under subsection (g) of this section, an action may be brought for a violation of this section or § 3708 of this title not later than 2 years after the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which the action is brought.

(g) In an action brought for a wilful violation of this section or § 3708 of this title, the action may be brought not later than 3 years after the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which the action is brought.

§ 3708. Retaliatory personnel actions prohibited.

(a) It is unlawful for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this chapter.

(b) An employer, temporary help company, employment agency, employee organization, or other person may not take a retaliatory personnel action or otherwise discriminate against an individual because the individual exercised rights protected under this chapter.

(c) Rights protected under this chapter include the following:

(1) The right to request, file for, apply for, or use family and medical leave benefits or covered leave.

(2) The right to communicate to the employer or any other person or entity an intent to file a claim, a complaint with the Department or courts, or an appeal, or testify or prepare to testify or assist in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding under this chapter, at any time, including during the period in which the individual receives family and medical leave benefits under this chapter.

(3) The right to inform a person about an employer's alleged violation of this chapter.

(4) The right to inform an individual of the individual's rights under this chapter.

(d) It is unlawful for an employer's absence control policy to count covered leave taken under this chapter as an absence that may lead to or result in discipline, discharge, demotion, suspension, or any other adverse action.

(e) Protections of this section apply to an individual who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this chapter.

(f) This section is to be enforced as provided in § 3707(c) through (g) of this title.

(g) This section applies only to an employee who has been employed by the employer for at least 90 days.

§ 3709. Coordination of benefits.

(a)(1) Covered leave that also qualifies as leave under the FMLA runs concurrently with leave taken under the FMLA and may not be taken in addition to leave under the FMLA.

(2) An employer may require that payment made under this chapter be made concurrently or otherwise coordinated with payment made or leave allowed under the terms of disability or family care leave under a collective bargaining agreement or employer policy. The employer shall give employees written notice of this requirement.

(3) An employer may require the use of unused accrued paid time off before accessing family and medical leave benefits, and the use of accrued paid time off may count toward the total length of leave provided under this chapter, if the employee is not required to exhaust all paid time off. For purposes of this paragraph (a)(3) of this section, "paid time off" includes an employer's provision of vacation and sick leave.

(4) A covered individual may not access family and medical leave benefits if the use of family and medical leave benefits results in the covered individual receiving more than 100% of the covered individual's weekly wages.

(b)(1) This chapter does not diminish an employer's obligation to comply with any of the following that provide more generous leave:

- a. A collective bargaining agreement.
- b. An employer policy.
- c. Any other law.

(2) An individual's right to covered leave may not be diminished by a collective bargaining agreement entered into or renewed, or an employer policy adopted or retained, after [the effective date of this Act].

(3) An agreement by an individual to waive the individual's rights under this chapter is void as against public policy.

§ 3710. Notice.

(1) The employee's right to family and medical leave benefits under this chapter and the terms under which it may be used.

(2) The amount of family and medical leave benefits.

(5) That discrimination and retaliatory personnel actions against the employee for requesting, applying for, or using family and medical leave benefits is prohibited under § 3708 of this title.

(6) That the employee has a right to file a complaint for violations of this chapter.

(7) Whether family and medical leave benefits are available to the employee through the State or an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title.

(b) An employer shall provide the notice required under subsection (a) of this section as follows:

(1) On hiring of the employee.

(2) When the employee requests covered leave or when the employer acquires knowledge that an employee's leave may be for a qualifying event under § 3702(a) of this title.

(c) An employer shall display and maintain a poster in a conspicuous place accessible to employees at the employer's place of business that contains the information required under subsection (a) of this section in English, Spanish, and any language that is the first language spoken by at least 5% of the employer's workforce, if the poster has been provided by the Department.

(d) The Department may adopt regulations to establish additional requirements concerning the means by which employers shall provide notice of this chapter.
