

Grants Management System Home Screen Overview At-A-Glance

The screenshot displays the Grants Management System Home Screen. The header includes a 'Home' link, a welcome message, and a user profile dropdown. The main content area features a 'FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES' section with a table of opportunities, an 'Applications' section with tabs for different application statuses, and an 'Activities' section with tabs for reporting requirements. Callout boxes provide detailed instructions for navigating these sections.

Clicking the Logo or "Home" anytime will bring you to this screen.

Upcoming or Current Funding Opportunities will be found here when logging into the Grants Management System.

Clicking your initial will open the My Links menu.

Access your Organization and User profiles.

Log Out of the Grants Management System.

These tabs will show Community Reinvestment Fund (CRF) applications that have a reporting requirement for any awarded grants. The Attention Required tab will show grants that will need reporting submitted or have had revisions requested. The Under Review tab will show grants for which reporting has already been submitted. The Complete tab will show grants for which the Controller General's Office has accepted reporting.

These tabs will show your currently being worked on applications (Attention Required), applications that have been submitted (Under Review), applications that have been approved by the General Assembly (Active Awards), and previously submitted applications (Closed/Historical).

Applications available in the various tabs (Attention Required, Under Review, Active Awards, Closed/Historical) will be listed here.
