2 WHEREAS, the FTC received 6,742 fraud reports from Delaware consumers last year; and

7 signage, raising awareness about the risks of using the gift cards in response to a fraudulent request; and

8 WHEREAS, younger people lose money to fraud more often than older people, but older people lose higher 9 amounts of money; and

10 WHEREAS, according to the FTC, older adults were less likely to report losing money to fraud, but those 70 and
