24 c. If the existing coverage under this section does not include a Medicare part C plan, the State Employee
25 Benefits Committee must select and adopt the plan under § 9602(d) of this title and as a regulation under the 26 Administrative Procedures Act, Chapter 101 of this title.
27 Section 5. If House Bill No. 282 is enacted into law, Section 4 of this Act takes effect January 2, 2025.
28 Section 6. If House Bill No. 282 is not enacted into law, Section 4 of this Act does not take effect.”.

SYNOPSIS

This Amendment allows a plan under Medicare part C, a Medicare Advantage Plan, as an option for eligible pensioners who are first hired on or after January 1, 2025, if the plan is initially selected and adopted by the State Employee Benefits Committee (SEBC) as a regulation under the Administrative Procedures Act. In addition, Sections 4 and 5 of this Amendment add, by reference, the procedural requirements added to § 9602(d) of Title 29 if House Bill No. 282 (152nd) is enacted.
