DELAWARE STATE SENATE 151st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SENATE BILL NO. 100

AN ACT TO AMEND TITLE 14 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO THE PUBLIC EDUCATION COMPENSATION COMMITTEE.

1	WHEREAS, educators are responsible for teaching students and contributing to their learning development; and
2	WHEREAS, according to the Economic Policy Institute, K-12 education ranked second to the leisure and
3	hospitality industry in job losses during the pandemic, amounting to a 4.7% drop in employment nationally as of December
4	2021; and
5	WHEREAS the pandemic having come on the heels of the Great Recession, the Economic Policy Institute
6	reported that as of December 2021, K-12 public education employment is down 432,000 or 5.3% from September 2008;
7	and
8	WHEREAS, the Economic Policy Institute has recorded a 20.3% loss in educational staffing in Delaware from
9	2008 to 2021 and specifically a 1.9% loss in educational staffing from 2019-2021; and
10	WHEREAS, according to Join Delaware Schools, as of May 2, 2022, there are 637 vacant educational staffing
11	positions statewide; and
12	WHEREAS, according to the National Education Association's Rankings of the States in 2020-2021, the
13	Delaware average salary for instructional staff and teachers ranks 16th in the country; and
14	WHEREAS, according to the National Education Association's Rankings of the States in 2020-2021, Delaware
15	teacher pay when adjusted for inflation from 2019 to 2021 decreased by over 2.9%; and
16	WHEREAS, according to the National Education Association's Rankings of the States in 2020-2021, the
17	Maryland average salary for instructional staff ranks 8th in the country and 9th for teachers; and
18	WHEREAS, according to the National Education Association's Rankings of the States in 2020-2021, the
19	Pennsylvania average salary for instructional staff ranks 12 th and 11 th for teachers; and

20	WHEREAS, according to the National Education Association's Rankings of the States in 2020-2021, the New
21	Jersey average salary for instructional staff ranks 4th and 7th for teachers; and
22	WHEREAS most teachers and specialists hold a master's degree or higher; and
23	WHEREAS, according to the Delaware Department of Education, in 2020-2021 the average student debt amongst
24	educators who qualified for Delaware's High Needs Student Loan Repayment Program was $52,406.42; and
25	WHEREAS the Economic Policy Institute reports public school teachers are paid 19.2% less than similar workers
26	in other occupations; and
27	WHEREAS, nationally, 41% held more than one job in 2019. More than a quarter (27%) held two jobs, about 10%
28	held three jobs, and 5% held four or more jobs. Among teachers with two or more jobs, well over half (62%) worked on 29	weekdays during the academic year, after classes ended for the day; and
30	WHEREAS, according to a national report on hiring and retaining teachers conducted by Emma García and Elaine
31	Weiss, teachers who quit the profession were more likely to have earned more pay outside of the school system than those
32	who remained in teaching; the report further found that when teachers must explore outside options to supplement low
33	teaching pay, they may find something they would rather pursue full time; and
34	WHEREAS the Economic Policy Institute's research identifies three primary factors driving the teacher shortage:
35	(1) challenging work environments or "school climates"; (2) inadequate or uneven professional supports for teachers; and
36	(3) low pay relative to peers in other professions with similar credentials and experience; and
37	WHEREAS, according to Delaware educators who are dual certified in special education and general education,
38	they can no longer manage the paperwork and other regulatory requirements of being both the teacher of record and a
39	special education case manager, especially without additional pay or support; and
40	WHEREAS, the National Education Association has reported that massive staff shortages in America's public
41	schools are leaving educators increasingly burned out, with an alarming 55% of educators now indicating that they are
42	ready to leave the profession they love earlier than planned.
43	NOW, THEREFORE:
44	BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE:
45	Section 1. Amend Chapter 13, Title 14 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
46	insertions as shown by underline as follows:

52	(5) Make recommendations that include approaches to the acquisition of skills and knowledge that are

66	(6) Provide recommendations on the creation of leadership roles through which educators will receive
67	additional compensation for assuming leadership responsibilities. Recommendations should also allow school
58	districts flexibility to determine the number and type of leadership roles. The Committee should consider positions
59	that: (1) have meaningful adult leadership responsibilities in the areas of curriculum, casework, instruction, student
70	support, family and community engagement, and professional development; (2) maintain a meaningful connection
71	to student learning; and (3) are supported by classroom or office coverage during times when the educator is away
72	from the classroom or students. Recommendations should include language indicating educators serving in
73	leadership roles shall not be assigned additional responsibilities that are not substantially related to their leadership
74	roles and classroom or professional obligations.
75	(7) Make recommendations for a process that provides additional compensation for professional
76	responsibilities that are not generally required in the classroom, including special education casework. The
77	Committee shall discuss and make recommendations regarding the types of responsibilities that could qualify for

82	this title. The Committee should provide a timeline and mechanism for transition and implementation.
83	(9) Review and provide recommendations to increase base levels of pay for education support staff as
