BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE (Three-fifths of all members elected to each house thereof concurring therein):

1 Section 1. Amend § 3801, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
2 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

3 § 3801. Definitions.

4 (f) "Independent trustee" means, solely with respect to a statutory trust that is registered as an investment company
5 or regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. §
6 80a-1 et seq.), or any successor statute thereto (the "1940 Act"), any trustee who is not an "interested person" (as such term
7 is defined below) of the statutory trust; provided that the receipt of compensation for service as an independent trustee of 8 the statutory trust and also for service as an independent trustee of 1 or more other investment companies or business
9 development companies managed by a single investment adviser (or an "affiliated person" (as such term is defined below)
10 of such investment adviser) shall not affect the status of a trustee as an independent trustee under this chapter. An 11 independent trustee as defined hereunder shall be deemed to be independent and disinterested for all purposes. For purposes
12 of this definition, the terms "affiliated person" and "interested person" have the meanings set forth in the 1940 Act or any 13 rule adopted thereunder.

14 Section 2. Amend § 3804, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
15 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

16 § 3804. Legal proceedings.

17 (a) A statutory trust may sue and be sued, and service of process upon 1 of the trustees shall be sufficient. In 18 furtherance of the foregoing, a statutory trust may be sued for debts and other obligations or liabilities contracted or 19 incurred by the trustees or other authorized persons, or by the duly authorized agents of such trustees or other authorized 20 persons, in the performance of their respective duties under the governing instrument of the statutory trust. Except to the 21 extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, the trustees or other authorized persons, or the duly authorized agents of such trustees or other authorized persons, may bind a statutory trust to a contract or instrument by entering into such contract or instrument in the name of the statutory trust or in the name of any such person acting on behalf of the statutory trust. The property of a statutory trust shall be subject to attachment and execution as if it were a corporation, subject to § 3502 of Title 10. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, in the event that the governing instrument of a statutory trust, including a statutory trust which is a registered investment company or regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. § 80a-1 et seq.), creates 1 or more series as provided in § 3806(b)(2) of this title, and to the extent separate and distinct records are maintained for any such series and the assets associated with any such series are held in such separate and distinct records (directly or indirectly, including through a nominee or otherwise) and accounted for in such separate and distinct records separately from the other assets of the statutory trust, or any other series thereof, and if the governing instrument so provides, and notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series as referenced in this sentence is set forth in the certificate of trust of the statutory trust, then the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the statutory trust generally or any other series thereof, and, unless otherwise provided in the governing instrument, none of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the statutory trust generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series. Neither the preceding sentence nor any provision pursuant thereto in a governing instrument or certificate of trust shall:

Section 3. Amend § 3805, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3805. Rights of beneficial owners and trustees in trust property.

(h) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of the statutory trust, where the statutory trust is a registered investment company or regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. § 80a-1 et seq.), any class, group or series of beneficial interests established by the governing instrument with respect to such statutory trust shall be a class, group or series preferred as to distribution of assets or payment of dividends over all other classes, groups or series in respect to assets specifically allocated to the class, group or series as contemplated by § 18 (or any amendment or successor provision) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 [15 U.S.C. § 80a-18], as amended, and any regulations issued thereunder, provided that this section is not intended to affect in any respect the provisions of § 3804(a) of this title.

Section 4. Amend § 3806, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3806. Management of statutory trust.

(b) A governing instrument may contain any provision relating to the management of the business and affairs of the statutory trust, and the rights, duties and obligations of the trustees, beneficial owners and other persons, which is not contrary to any provision or requirement of this subchapter and, without limitation:

(7) May provide for the appointment, election or engagement, either as agents or independent contractors of the statutory trust or as delegates of the trustees, of officers, employees, managers or other persons who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust, which delegation may be made irrespective of whether the trustee, officer, employee, manager or other person who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust has a conflict of interest with respect to the matter as to which its rights, powers or duties are being delegated, and the person or person to whom any such rights, powers or duties are being delegated shall not be deemed conflicted solely by reason of the conflict of interest of the trustee, officer, employee, manager or other person who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust, and may have such titles and such relative rights, powers and duties as the governing instrument shall provide.

Section 5. Amend § 3806, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3806. Management of statutory trust.

(i) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, a trustee of a statutory trust has the power and authority to delegate to 1 or more other persons any or all of the trustee's rights, powers or ~~and~~ duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the statutory trust, including to delegate which delegation may be made irrespective of whether the trustee has a conflict of interest with respect to the matter as to which its rights, powers or duties are being delegated, and the person or persons to whom any such rights, powers or duties are being delegated shall not be deemed conflicted solely by reason of the conflict of interest of the trustee. Any such delegation may be to agents, officers and employees of the trustee or the statutory trust, and to delegate by a management agreement or other agreement with, or otherwise to, other persons, including a committee of 1 or more persons. Unless otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, such delegation by a trustee of a statutory trust shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, such delegation by a trustee of a statutory trust shall not cause the trustee to cease to be a trustee of the statutory trust or cause the person to whom any such rights, powers or duties have been delegated to be a trustee of the statutory trust. No other provision of this subchapter or other law shall be construed to restrict a trustee's power and authority to delegate any or all of its rights, powers and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the statutory trust.

Section 6. Amend § 3806, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3806. Management of statutory trust.

(l) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, trustees of a statutory trust that is registered as an investment company or regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 [15 U.S.C. § 80a-1 et seq.] shall have the same fiduciary duties as directors of private corporations for profit organized under the general corporation law of the State.

Section 7. Amend § 3806, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3806. Management of statutory trust.

(o) Any act or transaction that may be taken by or in respect of a statutory trust under this subchapter or the governing instrument of the statutory trust, but that is void or voidable when taken, may be ratified (or the failure to comply with any requirements of the governing instrument making such act or transaction void or voidable may be waived) by the beneficial owners, trustees or other persons whose approval would be required under the governing instrument:

(1) For such act or transaction to be validly taken; or

(2) To amend the governing instrument in a manner that would permit such act or transaction to be validly taken, in each case at the time of such ratification or waiver;

provided, that if the void or voidable act or transaction was the issuance or assignment of any beneficial interests, the beneficial interests purportedly issued or assigned shall be deemed not to have been issued or assigned for purposes of determining whether the void or voidable act or transaction was ratified or waived pursuant to this subsection. Any act or transaction ratified, or with respect to which the failure to comply with any requirements of the governing instrument is waived, pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed validly taken at the time of such act or transaction. If an amendment to the governing instrument to permit any such act or transaction to be validly taken would require notice to any beneficial owners, trustees or other persons under the governing instrument and the ratification or waiver of such act or transaction is effectuated pursuant to this subsection by the beneficial owners, trustees or other persons whose approval would be required to amend the governing instrument, notice of such ratification or waiver shall be given following such ratification or waiver to the beneficial owners, trustees or other persons who would have been entitled to notice of such an amendment and who have not otherwise received notice of, or participated in, such ratification or waiver. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a ratification or waiver of a void or voidable act by other means permitted by law. Upon application of the statutory trust, any beneficial owner, any trustee or any person claiming to 112 be substantially and adversely affected by a ratification or waiver pursuant to this subsection (excluding any harm that 113 would have resulted if such act or transaction had been valid when taken), the Court of Chancery may hear and determine

114 the validity and effectiveness of the ratification of, or waiver with respect to, any void or voidable act or transaction
115 effectuated pursuant to this subsection, and in any such application, the statutory trust shall be named as a party and service
116 of the application upon the Delaware trustee or registered agent of the statutory trust required by § 3807 of this title shall be
117 deemed to be service upon the statutory trust, and no other party need be joined in order for the Court to adjudicate the 118 validity and effectiveness of the ratification or waiver, and the Court may make such order respecting further or other notice
119 of such application as it deems proper under these circumstances; provided, that nothing herein limits or affects the right to 120 serve process in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law, and this sentence is an extension of and not a 121 limitation upon the right otherwise existing of service of legal process upon nonresidents.

122 Section 8. Amend § 3807, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and 123 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

124 § 3807. Trustee in State; registered agent.

125 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, if a statutory trust is, becomes, or will become 126 prior to or within 180 days following the first issuance of beneficial interests, a registered investment company or a 127 regulated business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. § 80a-1 et 128 seq.), such statutory trust shall not be required to have a trustee who is a resident of this State or who has a principal place
129 of business in this State if notice that the statutory trust is or will become an investment company or a business
130 development company as referenced in this sentence is set forth in the certificate of trust of the statutory trust and if and for 131 so long as such statutory trust shall have and maintain in this State:

132 Section 9. Amend § 3807, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
133 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

134 § 3807. Trustee in State; registered agent.

135 (c) Any statutory trust maintaining a registered office and registered agent in this State under subsection (b) of this 136 section may change the location of its registered office in this State to any other place in this State, or may change the 137 registered agent to any other person or corporation (meeting the requirements contained in subsection (b) of this section), 138 by filing an amendment to its certificate of trust in accordance with the applicable provisions of this subchapter. If a
139 statutory trust which is an investment company or a business development company registered or regulated as aforesaid
140 maintains a registered office and a registered agent in this State as herein provided, then the reference in § 3810(a)(1)b. of 141 this title to the “name and address in this State of at least 1 of the trustees meeting the requirements of § 3807 of this title” shall be deemed a reference to the name and address in this State of the registered agent and registered office maintained under this section, and the certificate of trust filed under § 3810 of this title shall reflect such information in lieu of the information otherwise required by § 3810(a)(1)b. of this title.

Section 10. Amend § 3807, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3807. Trustee in State; registered agent.

(n) A successor trustee of one or more statutory trusts who, in accordance with the terms of the governing instrument of each affected statutory trust, has succeeded the predecessor trustee with respect to such statutory trusts may change the trustee's name and address, as set forth in a certificate of trust pursuant to § 3810(a)(1)b. of this title, in the certificates of trust of each statutory trust for which such successor trustee has succeeded by paying a fee as set forth in § 3813(a)(5) of this title and executing and filing a certificate with the Secretary of State setting forth the name and address of such predecessor trustee, stating that the successor trustee has succeeded such predecessor trustee and providing the name and address of the successor trustee. There shall be included in or attached to such certificate a list of the names and file numbers of each affected statutory trust. Upon the filing of such certificate, or upon the future effective date or time of such certificate if it is not to be effective upon filing, and payment of such fee, the successor trustee's name and address, as stated in such certificate, shall become for each such statutory trust the name and address of at least 1 of its trustees meeting the requirements of § 3807 of this title. Filing of such certificate shall be deemed to be an amendment to the certificate of trust of each statutory trust affected thereby, and no further action with respect thereto to amend its certificate of trust under § 3810 of this title shall be required.

Section 11. Amend § 3811, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

§ 3811. Execution.

(c) The execution of a certificate by a trustee, or other person authorized pursuant to subsection (a) of this section above, constitutes an oath or affirmation, under the penalties of perjury in the third degree, that, to the best of the trustee's, or other person authorized pursuant to subsection (a) of this section above, knowledge and belief, the facts stated therein are true at the time such certificate becomes effective as provided in this subchapter.

§ 3815. Merger and consolidation.

(a) Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, a statutory trust may merge or consolidate with or into 1 or more statutory trusts or other business entities formed or organized or existing under the laws of the State of Delaware or any other state or the United States or any foreign country or other foreign jurisdiction, with such statutory trust or other business entity as the agreement shall provide being the surviving or resulting statutory trust or other business entity. Notwithstanding prior approval, an agreement of merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation. Unless otherwise provided in the

b. Under a contract entered into before August 1, 2022 creating a binding obligation to purchase beneficial interests at a set price;

c. Under the laws of descent and distribution;

d. Under the satisfaction of a pledge or other security interest created in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this subchapter as determined by the trustees; or

e. Under a merger or consolidation effected under §3815 of this title if the statutory trust is the surviving or resulting party in the merger or consolidation, except with respect to any shares issued to a holder of control beneficial interests in the target party.

(e)(1) "Control beneficial interests" means beneficial interests that, except for this subchapter, would, if aggregated with all other beneficial interests of the statutory trust (including beneficial interests the acquisition of which is excluded from "control beneficial interest acquisition" in subsection (d)(2) of this section) owned by a person or in respect of which that person is entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (whether such power is direct or indirect or through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise), except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy, entitle that person, directly or indirectly, to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of beneficial interests of the statutory trust in the election of trustees (either generally or with respect to any subset, series or class of trustees, including any trustees elected solely by a particular series or class of beneficial interests) within any of the following ranges of voting power:

a. Ten percent or more, but less than fifteen percent of all voting power;

b. Fifteen percent or more, but less than twenty percent of all voting power;

c. Twenty percent or more, but less than twenty-five percent of all voting power;

d. Twenty-five percent or more, but less than thirty percent of all voting power;

e. Thirty percent or more, but less than a majority of all voting power; or

f. A majority or more of all voting power.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a member of a national securities exchange shall not be deemed to be a beneficial owner of beneficial interests held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because such member is the record holder of such securities and, pursuant to the rules of such exchange, may direct the vote of such beneficial interests, without instruction, on other than contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the beneficial interests to be voted but is otherwise precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without instructions.

(2) "Control beneficial interests" includes:

a. Beneficial interests of a statutory trust only to the extent that the acquiring person, following the acquisition of the beneficial interests, is entitled, directly or indirectly, to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power within any level of voting power set forth in this section for which approval has not been obtained under § 3883 of this title; provided that, if the statutory trust subsequently issues additional beneficial interests, all control beneficial interests prior to such issuance will remain control beneficial interests, even if they represent a percentage of voting power that is below the ranges described in paragraph (1) of this subsection; and

b. Beneficial interests of a statutory trust acquired within any range of voting power described in paragraph (1) of this subsection, even if the initial beneficial interests acquired within the applicable range of voting power are excluded from a control beneficial interest acquisition, including due to a reduction in the beneficial interests outstanding due to the statutory trust repurchasing or redeeming beneficial interests.

(f) "Interested beneficial interests" means beneficial interests of a statutory trust in respect of which any of the following persons is entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of beneficial interests of the statutory trust in the election of trustees:

(1) An acquiring person;

(2) An officer of the statutory trust;

(3) An employee of the statutory trust who is also a trustee of the statutory trust; or

(4) A trustee of the statutory trust who is an "interested person" of the statutory trust as defined in the 1940

Act or any rule adopted thereunder.

(g) "Person" includes an associate of the person.

§ 3882. Related acquisitions; beneficial interests held for the benefit of others.

For the purposes of this subchapter:

(1) Beneficial interests acquired within 90 days or beneficial interests acquired in a series of related transactions are considered to have been acquired in the same acquisition including for purposes of approvals or exemptions pursuant to § 3883(b) of this title or approval of a control beneficial interest acquisition by beneficial owners pursuant to § 3885 of this title; and

(2) A person will not be deemed to be entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power with respect to beneficial interests held for the benefit of others if the person:

a. Is acting in the ordinary course of business, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing the provisions of this section as determined by the trustees; and

b. Is not entitled to exercise or to direct the exercise of the voting power of the beneficial interests unless the person either (a) obtains the instruction of another unaffiliated person or (b) is subject to Rule 452 of the New York Stock Exchange LLC (or any successor rule) and has complied with such rule.

§ 3883. Voting rights; approvals and exemptions; application.

(a) Holders of control beneficial interests of the statutory trust acquired in a control beneficial interest acquisition have no voting rights under this chapter or the governing instrument of the statutory trust with respect to the control beneficial interests acquired in the control beneficial interest acquisition and such control beneficial interests shall not be considered to be outstanding with regard to any matters relating to the determination or existence of a quorum or any other matters relating to voting, including whether any required vote has been obtained, under this chapter or the governing instrument of the statutory trust except to the extent approved by the beneficial owners at a meeting held under § 3885 of this title by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, excluding all interested beneficial interests. Upon transfer of the control beneficial interests acquired in a control beneficial interest acquisition, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this subchapter as determined by the trustees, the holders of such beneficial interests shall have voting rights under this chapter and the governing instrument of the statutory trust with respect to the beneficial interests acquired, unless the acquisition of such beneficial interests by such holder constituted a control beneficial interest acquisition.

(b) This subchapter does not apply to the voting rights of beneficial interests if the acquisition of the beneficial interests specifically, generally, or generally by types, as to specifically identified or unidentified existing or future beneficial owners or their affiliates or associates, or as to any series or classes of beneficial interests, has been approved or exempted by a provision contained in the governing instrument or by action of the trustees. In the event that either a request is made under subsection (a) of §3885 of this title to have the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired in the control beneficial interest acquisition presented for consideration at a meeting of beneficial owners or the trustees determine under subsection (e)(1) of §3885 of this title to present for consideration at a meeting of beneficial owners the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired in the control beneficial interest acquisition, then, in either case, the trustees shall have no obligation to approve or exempt any such acquisition of the beneficial interests.

(c) This subchapter shall apply to a statutory trust registered under the 1940 Act as a closed-end management investment company or a statutory trust that is a closed-end management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company under the 1940 Act and that in either case has a class of equity securities listed on a national securities exchange registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. § 78a et seq.) or designated for trading on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System (NASDAQ), and this subchapter shall not apply to any other statutory trust.

§ 3884. Acquiring person statement.

Any person who proposes to make or who has made a control beneficial interest acquisition may deliver an acquiring person statement to the statutory trust at the statutory trust's principal office. The acquiring person statement shall set forth all of the following:

(1) The identity of the acquiring person and each other member of any group of which the acquiring person is a part for purposes of determining control beneficial interests;

(2) A statement that the acquiring person statement is given under this subchapter;

(3) The number of beneficial interests of the statutory trust owned (directly or indirectly) by the acquiring person and each other member of any group of which the acquiring person is a part;

(4) The applicable range of voting power as set forth in § 3881(e) of this title; and

(5) If the control beneficial interest acquisition has not occurred:

a. A description in reasonable detail of the terms of the proposed control beneficial interest acquisition;

and

b. Representations of the acquiring person, together with a statement in reasonable detail of the facts on which they are based, that:

1. The proposed control beneficial interest acquisition, if consummated, will not be contrary to law;

and

2. The acquiring person has the financial capacity, through financing to be provided by the acquiring person and any additional specified sources of financing required under § 3886 of this title, to make the proposed control beneficial interest acquisition.

§ 3885. Acquiring person meeting request.

(a) Except as provided in § 3886 of this title, if the acquiring person requests, at the time of delivery of an acquiring person statement, and gives a written undertaking to pay the statutory trust's expenses of a special meeting of beneficial owners of the statutory trust, except the expenses of opposing approval of the voting rights, within 20 days after the day on which the statutory trust receives both the request and undertaking along with any bond described in subsection (b) of this section, the trustees of the statutory trust shall call a special meeting of beneficial owners of the statutory trust for the purpose of considering the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired or to be acquired in the control beneficial interest acquisition.

(b) The trustees may require the acquiring person to give bond, with sufficient surety, to reasonably assure the statutory trust that this undertaking will be satisfied.

(c) Unless the acquiring person agrees in writing to another date, the special meeting of beneficial owners shall be held within 90 days after the day on which the statutory trust has received both the request and the undertaking; provided that if the anniversary of the date of the proxy statement for the prior year's annual meeting of holders of beneficial interests is within 120 days of the date of delivery of an acquiring person statement then the statutory trust may elect to present the acquiring person's proposal at the next annual meeting of holders of beneficial interests.

(d) If the acquiring person makes a request in writing at the time of delivery of the acquiring person statement, the special meeting may not be held sooner than 30 days after the day on which the statutory trust receives the acquiring person statement.

(e)(1) If no request is made under subsection (a) of this section, the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired in the control beneficial interest acquisition may, at the option of the trustees (but without any requirement), be presented for consideration at any meeting of beneficial owners.

(2) If no request is made under subsection (a) of this section and the statutory trust proposes to present the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired in a control beneficial interest acquisition for consideration at any meeting of beneficial owners, the statutory trust shall provide the acquiring person with written notice of the proposal not less than 10 days before the date on which notice of the meeting is given.

§ 3886. Special meeting requirements; limitations.

(a) A call of a special meeting of beneficial owners of the statutory trust is not required to be made under § 3885(a) of this title unless, at the time of delivery of an acquiring person statement under § 3884 of this title, the acquiring person has:

(1) Entered into a definitive financing agreement or agreements with one or more responsible financial institutions or other entities that have the necessary financial capacity, providing for any amount of financing of the control beneficial interest acquisition not to be provided by the acquiring person; and

(2) Delivered a copy of the agreements to the statutory trust.

(b) A call of a special meeting of beneficial owners of the statutory trust is not required to be made under § 3885(a) of this title if the acquiring person making such request (or an associate of such person) has in the three year period preceding such request made a request to have the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the beneficial interests acquired in a control beneficial interest acquisition presented for consideration at a meeting of beneficial owners where the beneficial owners have not approved such acquisition under § 3885 of this title.

§ 3887. Special meeting notice.

(a) If a special meeting of beneficial owners is requested, notice of the special meeting shall be given as promptly as reasonably practicable by the statutory trust to all beneficial owners of record as of the record date set for the meeting, whether or not the beneficial owners are entitled to vote at the meeting.

(b) Notice of the special or annual meeting of beneficial owners at which the voting rights are to be considered shall include or be accompanied by the following:

(1) A copy of the acquiring person statement, if any, delivered to the statutory trust under § 3884 of this title;

and

(2) A statement by the trustees of the statutory trust setting forth the position or recommendation of the trustees, or stating that the trustees are taking no position or making no recommendation, with respect to the issue of voting rights to be accorded the control beneficial interests.

§ 3888. Disclosure of control beneficial interest acquisitions and related information.

(a) A holder of beneficial interests shall disclose to the statutory trust any control beneficial interest acquisition within 10 days of such control beneficial interest acquisition. A statutory trust may require a holder of beneficial interests or an associate of such person to disclose the number of beneficial interests owned or with respect to which such person or an associate thereof has the direct or indirect power to exercise voting power.

(b) A holder of beneficial interests or an associate of such person shall provide to the statutory trust within 10 days of receiving a request therefor from the statutory trust any information that the trustees reasonably believe is necessary or desirable to determine whether a control beneficial interest acquisition has occurred.

Section 20. This Act shall become effective August 1, 2022.

SYNOPSIS

This Act continues the practice of amending periodically the Delaware Statutory Trust Act (the “Act”) to keep it current and to maintain its national preeminence. The following is a section-by-section review of proposed amendments of the Act.

Sections 1, 3, 6, 8, 9, 13 and 15-17. The amendments add business development companies to a number of provisions of the Act that previously applied only to registered investment companies (within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940). Though similar to registered investment companies in many respects, business development companies as a technical matter are not registered investment companies but instead elect to be subject to many of the federal regulations applicable to registered investment companies.

Section 2. Section 3804(a) of the Act has been amended to clarify that, except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, the trustees or other authorized persons, or the duly authorized agents of such trustees or other authorized persons, may bind a statutory trust to a contract or instrument by entering into such contract or instrument in the name of the statutory trust or in the name of any such person acting on behalf of the statutory trust.

Section 4. This section amends Section 3806(b)(7) of the Act to provide that a trustee, officer, employee, manager or other person who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust may delegate any of its rights, powers and duties irrespective of whether it has a conflict of interest with respect to the matter as to which such rights, powers or duties are being delegated, and that the person or persons to whom any such rights, powers or duties are being delegated shall not be deemed conflicted solely by reason of the conflict of interest of the trustee, officer, employee, manager or other person who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust. The amendments to Section 3806(b)(7) create a different rule than the rule applied in cases such as Wenske v. Bluebell Creameries, Inc., 214 A.3d 958 (Del. Ch. 2019), that a conflicted principal is legally disabled from delegating authority over the subject matter as to which the principal is conflicted even to an independent delegate.

Section 5. This section amends Section 3806(i) of the Act to confirm and clarify the broad power and authority of a trustee to delegate any or all of the trustee's rights, powers and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of a statutory trust, including any core governance functions. In addition, this section amends Section 3806(i) of the Act to provide that a trustee may delegate any of its rights, powers and duties irrespective of whether it has a conflict of interest with respect to the matter as to which such rights, powers or duties are being delegated, and that the person or persons to whom any such rights, powers or duties are being delegated shall not be deemed conflicted solely by reason of the conflict of interest of the trustee. The amendments to Section 3806(i) create a different rule than the rule applied in cases such as Wenske v. Bluebell Creameries, Inc. 214 A.3d 958 (Del. Ch. 2019), that a conflicted principal is legally disabled from delegating authority over the subject matter as to which the principal is conflicted even to an independent delegate.

Section 7. This section amends Section 3806 of the Act to add subsection (o) to provide a safe harbor procedure for ratifying acts or transactions that may be taken by or in respect of a statutory trust under the Act or a governing instrument that are void or voidable and waiving failures to comply with requirements of a governing instrument that make such acts and transactions void or voidable. New subsection (o) is intended to provide a rule different from the rule applied in Composecure, L.L.C. v. Cardux, LLC, 206 A.3d 807 (Del. 2018), and Absalom Absalom Trust v. Saint Gervais LLC, 2019 WL 2655787 (Del. Ch. June 27, 2019), that acts or transactions determined to be void generally may not be ratified. The penultimate sentence of new subsection (o) confirms that void or voidable actions may be ratified or requirements may be waived by other means permitted by law, and accordingly, new subsection (o) is not intended to preempt or restrict other valid means of ratifying acts or transactions or waiving requirements or to impair the effectiveness of any valid ratification or waiver previously effected.

Section 10. This section adds a provision for the filing of a certificate by a trustee who has succeeded the predecessor trustee of one or more statutory trusts in order to amend the name and address of such trustee in each affected certificate of trust.

Section 11. This section amends Section 3811(c) of the Act to clarify that the execution of a certificate by a person who is authorized by the Act to execute such certificate constitutes an oath or affirmation that, to the best of such person's knowledge and belief, the facts stated therein shall be true at the time such certificate becomes effective, not at the time such certificate is executed.

Section 12. This section specifies the fee payable in connection with the filing of a certificate under Section 3807(n).

Section 14. This section amends Section 3819 of the Act to make certain clarifying and conforming changes, and to provide that when a beneficial owner is entitled to obtain information for a stated purpose (whether pursuant to Section 3819 or a governing instrument), the beneficial owner's right shall be to obtain such information as is necessary and essential to achieving that purpose, unless such right has been expanded or restricted in the governing instrument. To the extent current law is that the "necessary and essential" test does not apply by default to (i) a beneficial owner's right under Section 3819(a) of the Act to obtain information from a statutory trust for a purpose reasonably related to the beneficial owner's interest as a beneficial owner of the statutory trust or (ii) a beneficial owner's right under a governing instrument to obtain information from a statutory trust for a stated purpose, new subsection (f) is intended to change that law.

Section 18. This section amends Section 3826(b) of the Act to confirm that a signature on a certificate of beneficial interest may be a manual, facsimile or electronic signature.

Section 19. This section adds Subchapter III to the Act to add a control beneficial interest acquisition provision for statutory trusts registered under the 1940 Act as closed-end management investment companies or statutory trusts that are closed-end management investment companies that have elected to be regulated as business development companies under the 1940 Act and that in either case have a class of equity securities listed on a national securities exchange registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. § 78a et seq.) or designated for trading on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System (NASDAQ).

Section 20. This section provides that the proposed amendments of the Act shall become effective August 1, 2022.
