13 (c) A person required to obtain a background check under this chapter shall submit fingerprints and other
14 necessary information to the State Bureau of Identification in order to obtain all of the following:

15 (1) A report of the person's entire criminal history record from the State Bureau of Identification or a
16 statement that the State Bureau of Identification Central Repository contains no such information relating to that 17 person.

18 (2) A report of the person's entire federal criminal history record from the Federal Bureau of Investigation
19 pursuant to Federal Bureau of Investigation appropriation of Title II of Public Law 92-544 (28 U.S.C. § 534) or a
20 statement that the Federal Bureau of Investigation's records contain no such information relating to that person.

21 (d) The State Bureau of Identification shall be the intermediary for the purpose of subsection (c) of this section and 22 shall forward all information required by subsections (a) and (b) of this section to the Department.

- 23 (e) The Department may adopt such standards for screening the background checks required by this section as the 24 Department shall determine appropriate.

SYNOPSIS

This Act amends the renewal period for obtaining background checks for employees of the Department of Labor who have access to Federal Tax Information. This amendment is necessary to conform to revisions of the federal Internal Revenue Service in Publication 1075, which shortened the renewal period from 10 to 5 years. The language is intended to allow conformity with this and any future revisions to the renewal period.
