HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
152nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 15

RESPECTING AND HONORING ALL DELAWARE MOTHERS ON MAY 14, 2023, MOTHER'S DAY.

1 WHEREAS, Mother's Day will be observed across the nation on Sunday, May 14, 2023; and

2 WHEREAS, Mother's Day was established at the suggestion and urging of 2 distinguished American women; and

3 WHEREAS, the call for an official Mother's Day was first issued by noted writer, reformer, and suffragist Julia
4 Ward Howe in 1872, and this worthy cause was again taken up by Anna M. Jarvis, who organized the first American 5 observance of Mother's Day in Philadelphia in 1907; and

6 WHEREAS, the first Mother's Day observance was a church service honoring Mrs. Anna Reese Jarvis, held at 7 Anna Jarvis's request in Grafton, West Virginia, and in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on May 10, 1908; and

8 WHEREAS, carnations were supplied at that first observance of Mother's Day. White carnations were chosen 9 because they represented the sweetness, purity and endurance of a mother's love. Red carnations, in time, became the 10 symbol of a living mother while white ones now signify that one's mother has died; and

11 WHEREAS, the House of Representatives in May, 1913, unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the 12 President, his Cabinet, members of Congress, and all officials of the federal government to wear a white carnation on 13 Mother's Day. Congress passed another Joint Resolution May 8, 1914; and

14 WHEREAS, Anna Jarvis's untiring efforts led to the passage of a joint resolution of the United States Congress, 15 designating the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day which was signed by President Woodrow Wilson, resulting in the 16 first national observance of Mother's Day in May 1914; and

17 WHEREAS, Mother's Day is officially a national holiday in the United States with the U.S. flag to be displayed on 18 government buildings and at people's homes, "as a public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our 19 country".

20 NOW, THEREFORE:

21 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 152nd General Assembly of the State of Delaware that 22 Sunday, May 14, 2023, is hereby recognized as a very special day for all mothers in the State of Delaware.

23 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives call on all Delawareans to 24 reflect on the many selfless actions of their own mothers and to honor them in the original spirit of the day, as envisioned
25 by Julia Ward Howe and Anna M. Jarvis, by giving each of them the priceless gift of love.

SYNOPSIS

This House Resolution recognizes Sunday, May 14, 2023, as a very special day for all mothers in the State of Delaware and calls on all Delawareans to reflect on the many selfless acts of their own mothers.
