19 provisions of this Act are severable if the invalidity does not affect the other provisions of this Act that can be given effect
20 without the invalid provision or the application of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid application.”.

SYNOPSIS

This amendment does the following:

Extends from 1 year to 2 years the length of time a handgun qualified purchaser permit is valid from the date of issue.

Makes a technical correction to language relating to the JP Court appeal process.

Allows for local law-enforcement agencies to ensure surrender or removal of handguns purchased with a revoked permit.

Removes the firearms training course voucher program and makes corresponding technical changes.

Adds an explicit severability provision.
