149th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 43

RECOGNIZING JUNE 19, 2017, AS "JUNETEENTH INDEPENDENCE DAY" IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

1 WHEREAS, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, but news of 2 the Order to end slavery came slowly to frontier areas across the country; and

3 WHEREAS, June 19, 1865, is recognized as the date on which General Gordon Granger, upon arriving in 4 Galveston, Texas, issued General Order Number Three, notifying the last enslaved Americans of their new legal status,
5 almost two and a half years after the Emancipation Proclamation and months after the conclusion of the Civil War; and

6 WHEREAS, prior to the arrival of General Granger's regiment, the Emancipation Proclamation had little impact
7 on the Texans due to the minimal number of Union troops to enforce the Executive Order, but with the regiment, the forces 8 were finally strong enough to influence and overcome the resistance; and

9 WHEREAS, the African-Americans who had been enslaved in the Southwest thereafter celebrated that date, 10 commonly known as "Juneteenth Independence Day", as the anniversary of their emancipation; and

11 WHEREAS, their descendants handed down that tradition from generation to generation as inspiration and 12 encouragement for future generations; and

13 WHEREAS, this year marks the 152th anniversary of Juneteenth Independence Day, which calls for celebrations to 14 honor the memory of all those who endured slavery, especially those who moved from slavery to freedom, and to 15 encourage self-development and respect for all cultures; and

16 WHEREAS, the history behind celebrating Juneteenth should be remembered as the event continues to receive 17 increased national, and even global, recognition; and

18 WHEREAS, the example of faith, strength and character of those who endured and overcame slavery remains a 19 lesson for all Americans today, regardless of background, region, or race;

20 NOW, THEREFORE:

21 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 149th General Assembly of the State of Delaware, the 22 Senate concurring therein, that June 19, 2017, is hereby recognized as “Juneteenth Independence Day” in the State of 23 Delaware.

24 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Delaware House of Representatives and Senate do hereby encourage the
