AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 38, TITLE 12 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO THE CREATION, REGULATION, OPERATION AND DISSOLUTION OF DOMESTIC STATUTORY TRUSTS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE:

1 Section 1. Amend § 3801(a), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike
2 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

3 “(a) “Beneficial owner” means any owner of a beneficial interest in a statutory trust, the fact of ownership to be 4 determined and evidenced (whether by means of registration (including on, by means of, or in the form of any information 5 storage device, method, or 1 or more electronic networks or databases (including 1 or more distributed electronic networks 6 or databases)), the issuance of certificates or otherwise) in conformity to the applicable provisions of the governing 7 instrument of the statutory trust.”

8 Section 2. Amend § 3802(b), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike 9 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

10 “(b) Except as provided in the governing instrument, a beneficial owner is obligated to the statutory trust to 11 perform any promise to contribute cash, property or to perform services, even if the beneficial owner is unable to perform 12 because of death, disability or any other reason. If a beneficial owner does not make the required contribution of property or 13 services the beneficial owner is obligated at the option of the statutory trust to contribute cash equal to that portion of the 14 agreed value (as stated in the records of the statutory trust) of the contribution that has not been made. The foregoing option 15 shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights, including the right to specific performance, that the statutory trust 16 may have against such beneficial owner under the governing instrument or applicable law.”

17 Section 3. Amend § 3803(c), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike 18 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

19 “(c) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, an officer, employee, 20 manager or other person acting pursuant to § 3806(b)(7) or § 3806(i), when acting in such capacity, shall not be personally 21 liable to any person other than the statutory trust or a trustee or a beneficial owner for any act, omission or obligation of the 22 statutory trust or any trustee thereof.”

Section 4. Amend § 3804(a), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

“(a) A statutory trust may sue and be sued, and service of process upon 1 of the trustees shall be sufficient. In furtherance of the foregoing, a statutory trust may be sued for debts and other obligations or liabilities contracted or incurred by the trustees or other authorized persons, or by the duly authorized agents of such trustees or other authorized persons, in the performance of their respective duties under the governing instrument of the statutory trust. The property of a statutory trust shall be subject to attachment and execution as if it were a corporation, subject to § 3502 of Title 10. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this § 3804, in the event that the governing instrument of a statutory trust, including a statutory trust which is a registered investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. §§ 80a-1 et seq.), creates one or more series as provided in § 3806(b)(2), and to the extent if separate and distinct records are maintained for any such series and the assets associated with any such series are held in such separate and distinct records (directly or indirectly, including through a nominee or otherwise) and accounted for in such separate and distinct records separately from the other assets of the statutory trust, or any other series thereof, and if the governing instrument so provides, and notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series as referenced in this sentence is set forth in the certificate of trust of the statutory trust, then the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the statutory trust generally or any other series thereof, and, unless otherwise provided in the governing instrument, none of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the statutory trust generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series. Neither the preceding sentence nor any provision pursuant thereto in a governing instrument or certificate of trust shall (i) restrict a statutory trust on behalf of a series from agreeing in the governing instrument or otherwise that any or all of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the statutory trust generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series or (ii) restrict a statutory trust from agreeing in the governing instrument or otherwise that any or all of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a series shall be enforceable against the assets of the statutory trust generally. As used in this chapter, a reference to assets of a series includes assets associated with a series and a reference to assets associated with a series includes assets of a series. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, a statutory trust that has established series in accordance with this subsection (a) may contract, hold title to assets (including real, personal and intangible property), grant liens and security interests, and sue and be sued, in each case, in the name of a series.”

Section 5. Amend § 3806(b)(7), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

“(7) May provide for the appointment, election or engagement, either as agents or independent contractors of the statutory trust or as delegates of the trustees, of officers, employees, managers or other persons who may manage the business and affairs of the statutory trust and may have such titles and such relative rights, powers and duties as the governing instrument shall provide. ~~Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, the trustees shall choose and supervise such officers, managers, employees and other persons;~~”

Section 6. Amend § 3806(f)(2), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

“(2) the beneficial owners may vote in person or by proxy, and such vote may be cast or such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic transmission or as otherwise permitted by applicable law. Unless otherwise provided in a governing instrument, a consent transmitted by electronic transmission by a beneficial owner or by a person or persons authorized to act for a beneficial owner shall be deemed to be written and signed for purposes of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, the term "electronic transmission" means any form of communication, not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, including the use of or participation in 1 or more electronic networks or databases (including 1 or more distributed electronic networks or databases), that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved, and reviewed by a recipient thereof, and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process. Unless otherwise provided in a governing instrument, if a person (whether or not then a beneficial owner) consenting as a beneficial owner to any matter provides that such consent will be effective at a future time (including a time determined upon the happening of an event), then such person shall be deemed to have consented as a beneficial owner at such future time so long as such person is then a beneficial owner.”

Section 7. Amend § 3806(g)(2), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

“(2) the trustee may vote in person or by proxy, and such vote may be cast or such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic transmission or as otherwise permitted by applicable law.

Unless otherwise provided in a governing instrument, a consent transmitted by electronic transmission by a trustee or by a person or persons authorized to act for a trustee shall be deemed to be written and signed for purposes of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, the term "electronic transmission" means any form of communication, not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, including the use of or participation in 1 or more electronic networks

83 or databases (including 1 or more distributed electronic networks or databases), that creates a record that may be retained, 84 retrieved, and reviewed by a recipient thereof, and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient 85 through an automated process. Unless otherwise provided in a governing instrument, if a person (whether or not then a 86 trustee) consenting as a trustee to any matter provides that such consent will be effective at a future time (including a time 87 determined upon the happening of an event), then such person shall be deemed to have consented as a trustee at such future 88 time so long as such person is then a trustee.”

89 Section 8. Amend § 3806(i), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike
90 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

91 “(i) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, a trustee of a statutory 92 trust has the power and authority to delegate to one or more other persons the trustee's rights,~~and~~ powers or duties to 93 manage and control the business and affairs of the statutory trust, including to delegate to agents, officers and employees of 94 the trustee or the statutory trust, and to delegate by management agreement or other agreement with, or otherwise to, other 95 persons. Unless otherwise provided in the governing instrument of a statutory trust, such delegation by a trustee of a 96 statutory trust shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the governing 97 instrument of a statutory trust, such delegation by a trustee of a statutory trust shall not cause the trustee to cease to be a 98 trustee of the statutory trust or cause the person to whom any such rights,~~and~~ powers or duties have been delegated to be a 99 trustee of the statutory trust.”

100 Section 9. Amend § 3806(k), Chapter 38, Title 12 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike

104 and upon information, opinions, reports or statements presented by another trustee, beneficial owner or officer, employee, 105 manager or other person designated in accordance with subsection (b)(7) or (i) of this Section, or by any other person as to 106 matters the trustee, beneficial owner or officer, employee, manager or other person designated in accordance with 107 subsection (b)(7) or (i) of this Section reasonably believes are within such other person’s professional or expert 108 competence, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, 109 profits or losses of the statutory trust, or the value and amount of assets or reserves or contracts, agreements or other 110 undertakings that would be sufficient to pay claims and obligations, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount

(i) to the extent such person is appointed, elected, engaged or made a delegate by an express provision of the governing instrument or another agreement contemplated thereby;

(ii) to the extent the trustee is required to appoint, elect or engage, or delegate to, such person by an express provision of the governing instrument or another agreement contemplated thereby and not pursuant to the discretionary authority of the trustee;

(iii) to the extent a trustee makes an irrevocable delegation pursuant to §3806(i) and pursuant to the discretionary authority of the trustee, except to exercise the standard of care required of the trustee under the governing instrument or this subchapter in making such decisions when selecting such person and when establishing the scope and terms of the delegation; or

(iv) in all other cases, except to exercise the standard of care required of the trustee under the governing instrument or this subchapter in making such decisions when selecting such person, when establishing the scope and terms of the delegation and when reviewing such person's actions in order to monitor such person's performance and compliance with the scope and terms of the delegation.

“(g) Upon dissolution of a series of a statutory trust established in accordance with § 3804(a), the persons who under the governing instrument of the statutory trust are responsible for winding up such series' affairs may, in the name of the statutory trust and for and on behalf of the statutory trust and such series, take all actions with respect to the series as are permitted under § 3808(d) and shall provide for the claims and obligations of the series and distribute the assets of the series as provided under § 3808(e). 292 converting other business entity in the form of a statutory trust. When the other business entity has been converted to a 293 statutory trust pursuant to this section, the statutory trust shall, for all purposes of the laws of the State of Delaware, be

314 enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had originally been incurred or contracted by it 315 in its capacity as such other business entity. The rights, privileges, powers and interests in property of the statutory trust that 316 has converted, as well as the debts, liabilities and duties of such statutory trust, shall not be deemed, as a consequence of the
