103	aside, account for, and pay over to the Department on account of the judgment all property then in the garnishee's
104	possession or which may become due to the judgment debtor by the garnishee, until the judgment and costs of execution
105	are paid. A copy of the notice of garnishment or an abstract thereof must be filed with the prothonotary of Superior Court
106	and the fact of the garnishment noticed on the regular judgment docket. The Department shall notify the garnishee in
107	writing when the judgment and costs have been satisfied.
108	(e) Duties of garnishee and penalties for failure to garnish.
109	(1) A person receiving a notice of garnishment under subsection (c) or (d) of this section shall respond to the
110	Department within 20 days after service of the notice, not counting the date of service.

111	(2) A garnishee who knowingly fails to comply with a notice of garnishment after notice and assessment
112	under this chapter, is liable for a penalty equal to the amount the garnishee was required to set aside, account for, and
113	pay over to the Department.
114	(3) Within 30 days after the date of mailing of a notice of proposed assessment of a penalty under this
115	subsection, the garnishee may file a written protest against the proposed assessment of penalty with the Department in
116	which the garnishee must set forth the grounds on which the protest is based. If a protest is filed, the Director of the
117	Division of Unemployment Insurance, as designee of the Secretary of Labor, shall reconsider the proposed assessment
118	of penalty and, if requested by the garnishee, shall grant the garnishee an oral hearing before an appeals tribunal under
119	§ 3319 of this title. The appeals tribunal decision is final and not subject to further appeal.
120	(4) A penalty under paragraph (e)(2) of this section becomes final 30 days after the mailing of the notice of
121	proposed assessment of the penalty, except for those amounts for which the garnishee has filed a timely written protest
122	with the Department under paragraph (e)(3) of this section.
123	(f) Notwithstanding § 3502 of Title 10, property, legal or equitable, wages, salaries, deposits, or moneys in banks,
124	savings institutions, or loan associations, or other property or income of an employer owing tax assessments to the
125	Department is not exempt from execution or attachment process issued on, or from collection of, a judgment obtained under
126	§ 3361 of this title.

129	(1) "Debt" means any amount owed for overpayment of benefits, including any interest and penalties, and for
130	unemployment compensation tax assessments, including any interest and penalties, payable under this title that
131	exceeds, in aggregate, $1,000 and that has been reduced to a judgment under § 3325 or § 3361 of this title.
132	(2) "Debtor" means a person liable for a debt.
133	(3) "Director of the Division of Professional Regulation" means the Director of the Division of Professional
134	Regulation of the Department of State, or the designee of the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation.
135	(4) "Director of Unemployment Insurance" means the Director of the Division of Unemployment Insurance of
136	the Department of Labor, or the designee of the Director of Unemployment Insurance.
137	(5) "License" means a license, permit, certificate, approval, registration, or other similar form of permission or
138	authorization to practice or engage in any profession, occupation, calling, or business issued or renewed by any
139	commission, board, or agency under the authority of the Division of Professional Regulation of the Department of

140

State under § 8735 of Title 29.

141	(b) Cooperative agreements for tax assessment enforcement and for the collection of overpayments of benefits.
142	(1)a. To provide for enforcement of the unemployment compensation laws of this State by means of the denial
143	or suspension of licenses issued to or applied for by debtors, the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation
144	shall enter into a cooperative agreement with the Director of Unemployment Insurance to exchange information about
145	any debtor who owes a debt to this State and who applies for or holds a license issued or renewed by any commission,
146	board, or agency under the authority of the Division of Professional Regulation.
147	b. The specific information and the manner and frequency with which information is made available or
148	otherwise exchanged between the Division of Unemployment Insurance and the Division of Professional
149	Regulation is to be determined by cooperative agreement, but must be made available or otherwise provided no
150	less than 1 time each calendar year.
151	c. Each cooperative agreement must contain provisions for ensuring the confidentiality of the information
152	to be exchanged under State and federal laws governing confidentiality of unemployment compensation
153	information.
154	d. Each cooperative agreement must be revised as necessary to effectuate the provisions and purposes of
155	this section.
156	(2) From the information provided by the Division of Professional Regulation under paragraph (b)(1) of this
157	section, the Division of Unemployment Insurance, at such intervals as it determines, may identify applicants or
158	licensees who are debtors, and undertake enforcement action under this section.
159	(c) Notice of intent to deny or suspend license. Subject to the provisions for notice and the right to a hearing under
160	subsections (d) and (e) of this section, the Director of Unemployment Insurance shall give written notice to a debtor that a
161	license issued or renewed by any commission, board, or agency under the authority of the Division of Professional
162	Regulation may be denied, suspended, or will not be issued or renewed.
163	(d) Contents of notice. The notice provided under this subsection must be sent by registered or certified mail to
164	the debtor's last address known to the Division of Unemployment Insurance and must inform the debtor of all of the
165	following:
166	(1) The nature and amount of the debt.
167	(2) That the debt has been reduced to judgment under §§ 3325 or 3361 of this title.
168	(3) That a copy of the judgment was provided to the debtor on or before the date of the notice.

169	(4) That under this section and § 8735 of Title 29, this information will be sent to the Division of Professional
170	Regulation for the purposes of suspending or denying the issue or renewal of the debtor's license unless, within 60 days
171	of the notice, the debtor has done any of the following:
172	a. Paid the debt in full.
173	b. Entered into a written agreement with the Director of Unemployment Insurance for payment of the
174	debt with such terms as the Director of Unemployment Insurance may require.
175	c. Requested a hearing under subsection (e) of this section.
176	(e) Request for hearing on proposed suspension or denial of license.
177	(1) If a debtor mails or delivers a written request for hearing to the Director of Unemployment Insurance
178	within 20 days from the date of mailing the notice of intent to deny or suspend a license, an appeals tribunal under §
179	3319 of this title shall conduct a hearing for the limited purpose of determining if the debt exceeds $1,000 and if the
180	debt was reduced to judgment under § 3325 or § 3361 of this title.
181	a. The appeals tribunal shall give written notice of the hearing to the debtor.
182	b. The debtor may present evidence, be represented by counsel of debtor's choice and at debtor's expense,
183	and appear personally or by other representative.
184	c. The appeals tribunal cannot receive evidence at the hearing regarding the appropriateness or validity of
185	the final assessment of the unemployment compensation tax, including any interest and penalty, or the
186	overpayment of benefits, including any interest and penalty, that has been reduced to judgment under § 3325 or §
187	3361 of this title.
188	d. The appeals tribunal must reach a decision based on the evidence received at the appeals tribunal
189	hearing and issue a decision to the debtor after the hearing. The appeals tribunal decision is final and not subject to
190	further appeal.
191	(f) Denial or suspension of professional or occupation license.
192	(1) On certification by the Director of Unemployment Insurance to the Director of the Division of
193	Professional Regulation of compliance with this section, the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation shall
194	immediately suspend all licenses issued to the debtor by any commission, board, or agency; deny any applications to
195	issue or renew any such license or licenses by the debtor; and give written notice of the suspension or denial to the
196	debtor.

197	(2) The debtor remains ineligible for the issuance, renewal, or reinstatement of any license until the Director
198	of Unemployment Insurance provides written certification to the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation
199	that the grounds for denial or suspension of a license under this section no longer exist.
200	(3) The Director of Unemployment Insurance shall provide the written certification under paragraph (f)(2) of
201	this section to the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation within 30 days from the time that the grounds for
202	denial or suspension of a license under this section no longer exist.
203	(4) The Director Unemployment Insurance shall provide notice to the debtor when the written certification
204	under paragraph (f)(2) of this section is provided to the Director of the Division of Professional Regulation.
205	(g) Regulations. The Director of Unemployment Insurance may promulgate regulations necessary to implement
206	the provisions of this section.
207	(h) Remedies not exclusive. The remedies provided under this section are in addition to any other remedies for the
208	enforcement of tax assessment obligations and the collection of overpayments of benefits.
209	Section 5. Amend § 8735, Title 29 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
210	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
211	§ 8735. Division of Professional Regulation.
212	(1)(1) The provisions of §§ 516(g) and § 2216 of Title 13 13, § 3368 of Title 19, and § 547 of Title 30 shall
213	supersede any provisions of this section to the contrary and any provisions or procedures, by statute or regulation, of any
214	commission, board board, or agency named in this section with respect to matters involving any applicant or licensee under
215	§ 516(g) or § 2216 of Title 13 13, § 3368 of Title 19, and § 547 of Title 30.
216	(2) The Upon receipt of notification from the Family Court pursuant to § 516(g) of Title 13, or notice from the
217	Director of the Division of Child Support Services pursuant to § 2216 of Title 13 or notice from the Director of the
218	Division of Revenue pursuant to § 547 of Title 30 regarding a licensee or applicant, the Director of the Division of
219	Professional Regulation shall forthwith suspend, or deny to such licensee or applicant the issuance or renewal of, any
220	license, permit, certificate, approval, registration registration, or other similar form of permission or authorization to
221	practice or engage in any profession, occupation occupation, or business of any commission, board board, or agency
222	named in this section (but section, but not including any license issued on behalf of a nonprofit applicant by the Board
223	of Charitable Gaming as set forth in under Chapter 15 of Title 28) 28, on receipt of notification regarding a licensee or
224	applicant from any of the following:
225	a. The Family Court under § 516(g) of Title 13.
226	b. The Director of the Division of Child Support Services under § 2216 of Title 13.

228

d. The Director of the Division of Revenue under § 547 of Title 30.

SYNOPSIS

This Act expands the collection procedures available to the Division of Unemployment Insurance to more closely match the collection procedures currently available to the Division of Revenue providing the Division of Unemployment Insurance with streamlined procedures to allow it to more quickly and easily execute on judgments for unpaid unemployment insurance tax assessments. These procedures include obtaining warrants for the levy and sale of property; extending liens; garnishments of wages, bank accounts, and other property; and denying or suspending professional licenses of judgment debtors. This Act also makes technical corrections to conform existing law to the standards of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual.

This Substitute differs from Senate Bill No. 128 as follows:

- 1. Provides authority for appeals tribunals to hear protests under § 3368 of Title 19 and hearings under § 3369 of Title 19.
- 2. Aligns the length of a lien of a judgment under Chapter 33 of Title 19 with the length of a lien of judgment obtained by the Division of Revenue.
 - 3. Removes debts owed due to overpayments from garnishment.
 - 4. Makes clarifications and technical corrections.
