§ 2110. Modification of bail, security or ~~conditions of release and sanctions for violation~~: conditions.

(a) ~~Unless reviewed earlier, a court with jurisdiction over the defendant shall review conditions of pretrial release for a defendant who remains detained after 72 hours from the defendant's initial presentment as a result of the inability to meet conditions of pretrial release. This review shall occur within 10 days from the date of detention. Each court shall establish its procedure for timely review.~~ A defendant or the Attorney General may apply to the court for any modification of any determination by the court as to the decision of the type of release, the amount and nature of the bond or surety, or the conditions of release. An application under this subsection must be made at the time, on the conditions, and in the manner provided by the Rules of Superior Court.

(b) ~~A defendant, regardless of custody status, or the Attorney General, the Attorney General's designee, a third-party private or commercial surety, the Department of Correction, or any person or nongovernmental organization to whom a defendant has been released for supervision may apply to the court for modification of any condition of pretrial release. The courts shall establish rules governing the procedure for motions to modify conditions of pretrial release. Motions to modify conditions of pretrial release shall be filed in and decided by the court that has jurisdiction over the defendant at the time the motion is made. The defendant, the Attorney General, or the Attorney General's designee may make an oral application at any proceeding at which the parties are both present. Once a movant's application is ruled upon, the movant may initiate subsequent review of conditions of pretrial release only upon a material change in circumstance.~~

(c) ~~Following a hearing alleging pretrial noncompliance and upon a finding that the defendant violated 1 or more material conditions of pretrial release, the court with jurisdiction over the defendant, may continue the current conditions, remove or impose different or additional conditions upon the defendant's release, or revoke the defendant's bail and reset pretrial conditions of release, including any financial conditions. Upon a finding that defendant violated a condition of appearance in court, any amount of surety posted to meet financial term of release may be forfeited.~~

(d) ~~The court may impose different or additional conditions of pretrial release or may remove conditions of pretrial release only when the facts of the individual case or the defendant's circumstances demonstrate that modification of conditions is necessary to reasonably ensure the defendant's appearance at court proceedings, to protect the community, victims, witnesses, or any other person, and to maintain the integrity of the judicial process.~~

(e) ~~Upon disposition of the request to modify conditions of pretrial release, the court shall set forth on the record the reasons for amendment of or continuation of the conditions imposed.~~

(f) (b) If the court modifies ~~conditions of release,~~ any bail amount the court shall review conditions and may impose any conditions ~~as are set forth in under~~ § 2108 of this title, ~~when such conditions are necessary to provide a reasonable assurance of the appearance of the defendant at court proceedings, the protection of the community, victims, or any other person, and to maintain the integrity of the judicial process. The court shall review the modified conditions with the defendant.~~ including specific considerations for the safety of the victim and the community.

Section 9. Amend § 2111, Title 11 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

277 insertions as shown by underline as follows and redesignate accordingly:

278 § 2114. Administration of this chapter.

279 (a) The Department of Correction shall administer the provisions of this chapter that are not exclusively ~~within the~~
280 ~~jurisdiction of the judiciary. the province of the judges of the respective courts of this State.~~

281 (b) ~~The Commissioner of the Department of Correction may employ such staff as may be necessary to implement~~
282 ~~this chapter.~~

283 (e) (b) The Department of Correction may investigate the release of persons charged with criminal offenses and 284 otherwise advise and assist the courts in carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The Department of Correction shall
285 provide pretrial supervision to released defendants when ordered by the court and shall report such defendants' compliance
286 or noncompliance with conditions of pretrial release when necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. ~~The~~ 287 ~~Department of Correction may request modification of conditions of pretrial release. Each court shall establish rules and~~ procedures for timely disposition of reports of noncompliance with conditions of pretrial release and requests for modification of conditions of pretrial release.

(d) (c) The Department of Correction shall have the power necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, including the following: including subpoena power, and as is provided by the Rules of the Superior Court.

(1) The Department of Correction may adopt standard conditions for the supervision of defendants ordered to pretrial supervision and may modify conditions of supervision as necessary to address technical or minor violations of conditions of pretrial release. The imposition of standard or modified conditions shall be limited to those conditions necessary to provide a reasonable assurance of the appearance of the defendant at court proceedings, the protection of the community, victims, witnesses or any other person, and to maintain the integrity of the judicial process. These conditions shall apply when not contrary to any other specific conditions imposed by the court.

(2) The Department of Correction may adopt standards concerning pretrial supervision through home confinement. The Department of Correction is authorized to supervise defendants released pretrial on home confinement without the use of any specific electronic equipment, so long as sufficient and reasonable methods for ensuring compliance with the terms of house arrest are employed.

(3) The Department of Correction is authorized to use electronic monitoring systems and any new or emerging monitoring technology that will assist in the supervision of defendants released pretrial.

(d) The Commissioner of the Department of Correction may employ 1 supervisor, and such assisting and clerical staff as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

(e) The court, when notified by the Department of Correction of a violation of pretrial release, may issue a summons or a warrant for the arrest of a defendant for violating any condition of pretrial release.

(f) The Commissioner of the Department of Correction or any probation officer, acting in performance of his or her duties, under exigent circumstances may arrest a supervised defendant without a warrant when in the judgment of the Commissioner or probation officer the supervised defendant has violated any material condition of pretrial release. The Commissioner or probation officer may deputize any other officer with power of arrest to do so by giving that officer a written statement setting forth in what manner the supervised defendant has in the judgment of the Commissioner or the probation officer violated a material condition of pretrial release. When an arrest is made by a probation officer or the Commissioner, the officer shall present to the detaining authority a written statement of the circumstances of violation.

(g) Upon arrest and detention, the Commissioner or probation officer shall notify the court of jurisdiction forthwith and shall submit to the court a written report showing in what manner the defendant has violated the conditions of pretrial release.

318 ~~(h) When the Commissioner or probation officer alleges noncompliance with material conditions of pretrial~~
319 ~~release, pursuant to subsection (f) of this section, a probation officer shall take the defendant directly before the court of~~
320 ~~jurisdiction if that court is in session or take the defendant before a magistrate. The hearing may be summary in nature.~~

321 ~~(i) The Criminal Justice Council shall submit a report to the General Assembly on an annual basis, beginning~~
322 ~~January 30, 2019, regarding the modernization of the pretrial system, including a report of data related to pretrial success~~
323 ~~rates.~~

SYNOPSIS

In 2018, the General Assembly enacted House Bill No. 204 of the 149th General Assembly, Chapter 200, Volume 81 of the Laws of Delaware, ("HB 204"), with "the goal of modernizing the pretrial process, reducing reliance on monetary conditions, improving the efficiency and outcomes for the criminal justice system, and ensuring the safety of the community." HB 204 has resulted in the release of violent offenders into our communities, leading to more Delawareans being victimized. Therefore, this Act repeals HB 204, replacing HB 204's provisions with the law in effect before the enactment of HB 204 and bringing back greater safety for law abiding Delawareans and accountability for defendants.

This Act also makes technical corrections to conform existing law, and previous law being returned to the Delaware Code, to the standards of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual.
