64 ~~of adoption;~~ adoption, and the Court, in its discretion, accepts the consent or the parent has satisfied the requirements
65 under § 907A of Title 16.

66 (2) ~~The child has been abandoned.~~

67 a. ~~The Court may order a termination of parental rights based upon abandonment if the Court finds that~~
68 ~~the following occurred and that the respondent intended to abandon the child:~~

69 1. ~~In the case of a minor who has not attained 6 months of age at the time a petition for termination~~
70 ~~of parental rights has been filed, and for whom the respondent has failed to:~~

71 A. ~~Pay reasonable prenatal, natal and postnatal expenses in accordance with the respondent's~~
72 ~~financial means;~~

76 2. ~~In the case of a minor who has attained 6 months of age at the time a petition for termination of~~ 77 ~~parental rights is filed, the respondent, for a period of at least 6 consecutive months in the year preceding the~~ 78 ~~filing of the petition, has failed to:~~

79 A. ~~Communicate or visit regularly with the minor; and~~

81 ~~during this time, the minor was not in the physical custody of the other parent; or~~

82 3. ~~In the case of a minor who has not attained 6 years of age at the time a petition for termination of~~
83 ~~parental rights has been filed, and for whom the respondent has manifested the unwillingness to exercise~~
84 ~~parental rights and responsibilities, as evidenced by the respondent's placing the minor in circumstances~~
85 ~~which leave the minor in substantial risk of injury or death.~~

86 b. In cases in which no finding of intent to abandon has been made, the Court may order a termination of
87 parental rights based upon abandonment if the Court finds that the respondent, for a period of at least 12
88 consecutive months in the 18 months preceding the filing of the petition, has failed to:

89 1. Communicate or visit regularly with the minor;

90 2. File or pursue a pending petition to establish paternity or to establish a right to have contact or 91 visitation with the minor; and

92 3. Manifest an ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the minor, if during 93 this time, the minor was not in the physical custody of the parent;

94 and if the Court finds that one of the following grounds exists:

95 1. If the minor is not in the legal and physical custody of the other parent, the respondent is not able
96 or willing promptly to assume legal and physical custody of the minor, and to pay for the minor's support, in
97 accordance with the respondent's financial means;

98 2. If the minor is in the legal and physical custody of the other parent and a stepparent, and the
99 stepparent is the prospective adoptive parent, the respondent is not able or willing promptly to establish and
100 maintain contact with the minor and to pay for the minor's support, in accordance with the respondent's
101 financial means;

102 3. Placing the minor in the respondent's legal and physical custody would pose a risk of substantial
103 harm to the physical or psychological well-being of the minor because the circumstances of the minor's
104 conception, the respondent's behavior during the mother's pregnancy or since the minor's birth, or the
105 respondent's behavior with respect to other minors, indicates that the respondent is unfit to maintain a
106 relationship of parent and child with the minor; or

107 4. Failure to terminate would be detrimental to the minor. In determining whether a failure to 108 termination would be detrimental to the minor, the Court shall consider any relevant factor, including the 109 respondent's efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the minor, the role of other persons in 110 thwarting the respondent's efforts to assert parental rights, the respondent's ability to care for the minor, the 111 age of the minor, the quality of any previous relationship between the respondent and the minor and between 112 the respondent and any other minor children, the duration and suitability of the minor's present custodial 113 environment and the effect of a change of physical custody on the minor.

114 c. The respondent's act of abandonment cannot be cured by subsequent conduct.

115 d. Abandonment of a baby as provided in § 907A of Title 16 shall be final 30 days after such 116 abandonment, and such abandonment shall be:

117 1. The surrendering person's irrevocable consent to the termination of all parental rights, if any, of 118 such person on the ground of abandonment; and

119 2. ~~The surrendering person's irrevocable waiver of any right to notice of or opportunity to participate~~
120 ~~in any termination of parental rights proceeding involving such child,~~
121 ~~unless such surrendering person has manifested an intent to exercise parental rights and responsibilities~~
122 ~~within 30 days of such abandonment.~~

123 (2) Intentional abandonment. The Court finds that the respondent abandoned the child and the abandonment
124 was intentional. The respondent's subsequent conduct does not cure the abandonment. Intentional abandonment is 125 evidenced by at least 1 of the following:

126 a. When the petition for termination of parental rights is filed, the child is under 6 months old and the 127 respondent has failed to do all of the following:

- 128 1. Pay reasonable prenatal, natal, and postnatal expenses for the child.
129 2. Visit regularly with the child or file a petition for visitation with the Court.
130 3. Manifest an ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child, if the child
131 was not in the physical custody of the other parent during this time.

132 b. When the petition for termination of parental rights is filed, the child is at least 6 months old and, for at 133 least 6 consecutive months of the 12 months preceding the filing of the petition, the respondent failed to do all of 134 the following:

- 135 1. Communicate or visit regularly with the child.
136 2. Manifest an ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child, if the child
137 was not in the physical custody of the other parent during this time.

138 c. When the petition for termination of parental rights is filed, the child is under 6 years old and the 139 respondent has manifested unwillingness to exercise parental rights and responsibilities over the child, as 140 evidenced by the respondent having placed the child in circumstances in which the child was at substantial risk of 141 injury or death.

142 (3) Unintentional abandonment. The Court finds that the respondent abandoned the child and the 143 abandonment was unintentional. The respondent's subsequent conduct does not cure the abandonment. Unintentional
144 abandonment is evidenced by both of the following:

145 a. For at least 12 consecutive months of the 18 months preceding the filing of the petition, the respondent
146 has failed to do all of the following:

- 147 1. Communicate or visit regularly with the child.
148 2. File or pursue a pending petition to establish paternity or to establish a right to have contact or 149 visitation with the child.
150 3. Manifest an ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child, if the child
151 was not in the physical custody of the other parent during this time.

2. The child is in the legal and physical custody of the other parent and a stepparent, and all of the following apply:

A. The stepparent is the prospective adoptive parent.

B. The respondent is not able or willing to promptly establish and maintain contact with the child and pay reasonable support for the child.

3. Placing the child in the respondent’s legal and physical custody would pose a risk of substantial harm to the child’s physical or psychological well-being because the respondent is unfit to maintain a relationship of parent and child with the child, as indicated by at least 1 of the following:

A. The circumstances of the child’s conception.

B. The respondent’s behavior during the mother’s pregnancy or since the child’s birth.

C. The respondent’s behavior with respect to another child.

4. Failure to terminate the respondent’s parental rights would be detrimental to the child. In determining whether this ground exists, the Court shall consider all relevant factors, including all of the following:

A. The respondent’s efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the child.

B. The role of another person in thwarting the respondent’s efforts to assert parental rights.

C. The respondent’s ability to care for the child.

D. The child’s age.

E. The quality of a previous relationship between the respondent and child, and between the respondent and another child.

F. The duration and suitability of the child’s current custodial environment.

G. The effect on the child of a change of physical custody.

~~(3) The parent or parents of the child or any person or persons holding parental rights over such child are found by the Court to be mentally incompetent and, from evidence of 2 qualified psychiatrists selected by the Court, found to be unable to discharge parental responsibilities in the foreseeable future. The Court shall appoint a licensed attorney as guardian ad litem to represent the alleged incompetent in the proceeding; or~~

~~(4) Conviction or adjudication of delinquency. The respondent has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have had a conviction or has been adjudicated as a delinquent child relating to any of the following offenses or substantially similar offenses of another jurisdiction:~~

184 a. ~~Committed a felony level offense against the person, as described within subchapter II of Chapter 5 of~~
185 ~~Title 11, in which the victim was a child; or A felony level offense against the person under Subchapter II of~~
186 ~~Chapter 5 of Title 11, in which the victim is a child.~~

187 b. ~~Aided or abetted, attempted, conspired or solicited to commit an offense set forth in paragraph (a)(4)a.~~
188 ~~of this section; or Aiding, abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit a felony level offense against~~
189 ~~the person under Subchapter II of Chapter 5 of Title 11, in which the victim is a child.~~

190 c. ~~Committed or attempted to commit the offense of dealing in children, as set forth in § 1100A of Title~~
191 ~~11; or Dealing in children or attempting to deal in children, under § 1100A of Title 11.~~

192 d. ~~Committed the felony level offense of endangering the welfare of a child as set forth in § 1102 of Title~~

200 a. ~~In the case of a child in the care of the Department or a licensed agency:~~

201 1. ~~The child has been in the care of the Department or licensed agency for a period of 1 year, or for a~~
202 ~~period of 6 months in the case of a child who comes into care as an infant, or there is a history of previous~~
203 ~~placement or placements of this child; or~~

204 2. ~~There is a history of neglect, abuse or lack of care of the child or other children by the respondent;~~
205 ~~or~~

206 3. ~~The respondent is incapable of discharging parental responsibilities due to extended or repeated~~
207 ~~incarceration, except that the Court may consider postconviction conduct of the respondent; or~~

208 4. ~~The respondent is not able or willing to assume promptly legal and physical custody of the child,~~

210 5. ~~Failure to terminate the relationship of parent and child will result in continued emotional~~
211 ~~instability or physical risk to the child. In making a determination under this paragraph, the Court shall~~
212 ~~consider all relevant factors, including:~~

213 A. ~~Whether the conditions that led to the child's placement, or similar conditions of a harmful~~
214 ~~nature, continue to exist and there appears to be little likelihood that these conditions will be remedied at~~
215 ~~an early date which would enable the respondent to discharge parental responsibilities so that the child~~

220 relationship between the respondent and the child or any other children;

221 D. The effect of a change of physical custody on the child; and 222 E. The effect of a delay in termination on the chances for a child to be placed for adoption.

223 b. In the case of a child in the home of a stepparent, guardian, permanent guardian or blood relative:

224 1. The child has resided in the home of the stepparent, guardian, permanent guardian or blood
225 relative for a period of at least 1 year, or for a period of 6 months in the case of an infant; and

226 2. The Court finds the respondent is incapable of discharging parental responsibilities, and there
227 appears to be little likelihood that the respondent will be able to discharge such parental responsibilities in the 228 near future.

229 (5) Failure to plan, DSCYF or licensed agency. A child is in DSCYF custody or placed by a licensed agency
230 and the respondent is not able or has failed to plan adequately for the child's physical needs or mental and emotional

232 a. The child has been in DSCYF custody or placed by a licensed agency for at least 1 year.

775 Section 20. Section 1107A(f) of Title 13 of Section 10 of this Act takes effect only if Senate Bill No. 91 of the 776 151st General Assembly is enacted by January 1, 2023.

SYNOPSIS

This Act is the result of over 6 years of work and collaboration among the Family Court, Department of Justice, Department of Services for Youth, Children, and their Families, the Office of the Child Advocate, private adoption agencies, and the Family Law Section of the Delaware Bar Association to modernize Delaware's termination of parental rights ("TPR") statute.

This Act makes numerous technical and substantive revisions to conform and update the TPR statute with current practices and procedure, provide clarity to and ease of use for certain portions of the statute, and conform the TPR statute with the standards of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual. Notable changes include:

(1) Several changes to the grounds for terminating parental rights: elimination of the ground of mental incompetence, addition of murder or manslaughter of the other parent as a ground, and creation of a new ground for parents in private TPR proceedings who have failed to alleviate circumstances causing their children to be dependent or neglected in their care after receiving notice and a reasonable opportunity to address the issues.

(2) Reclassifying abandonment of a child under the Safe Arms program from an involuntary TPR to a voluntary consent.

(3) Increasing the standard to terminate the rights of only 1 parent from "harmful to the child" to "serious physical or emotional harm to the child."

(4) Eliminating the requirement to note the gender of a child in a TPR petition and, except where necessary in the context of a provision, replacing gender-based identifiers (man, woman, mother, father) with "parent."

(5) Enumerating clear requirements for the contents of a social report and providing DSCYF and licensed agencies more time to complete the social report in non-DSCYF custody cases.

(6) Relocating the required statement that a parent has been notified of the parent's right to file a written notarized statement with the Office of Vital Statistics denying the release of identifying information under 13 Del.C. § 923(b) from the petition to the social report.

(7) Eliminating DSCYF's ongoing obligation to report to the Court after permanent guardianship or guardianship is granted and DSCYF holds parental rights, and codifying Family Court Civil Rule 220 relating to Post-Termination Placement Orders.

(8) Clarifying that the Family Court has discretion whether to accept a TPR consent, DSCYF has sole discretion to plan with a parent if it has established a ground to be relieved from planning with that parent, and the time for filing an appeal begins to run after issuance of the Court's written order.

(9) Making technical corrections to conform existing law to the standards of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual, including revising language to use the active voice rather than the passive voice.
