This amendment removes the following crimes from the signal offense list: strangulation, assault in the second degree, rape in the third degree, arson in the first degree, burglary first degree (except home invasion burglary), stalking, possession of a deadly weapon during commission of a felony, any domestic violence offense allegedly committed while the defendant is pending adjudication on a previously charged violent felony allegedly committed against the same victim, and tier 3 drug dealing. It also alters the presumption for signal offenses to cash or secured bail rather than cash bail only.
