123	collective bargaining representative of the unit of which the covered individual is a part if such a collective
124	bargaining agreement is in effect.
125	c. Unless otherwise required by the covered individual's health care provider, the employer or private

139	3702(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(4) of this title in an application year is 6 weeks in any 24-month period.
140	(b) If two parents are entitled to leave under § 3702(a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(4) of this title and are employed by the
141	same employer, the aggregate number of weeks of leave to which both may be entitled may be limited by the employer to
142	12 weeks during any 12-month period. The Department may adopt regulations limiting aggregate family caregiving leave
143	claimed by multiple family members for the same qualifying event.
144	(c) Except for parental leave benefits, and as permitted under § 3706 of this title, a covered individual is eligible
145	for benefits under this chapter not more than once in a 24-month period.
146	(d) An employer must approve or deny an application for benefits under this section within 5 business days of
147	receipt of a completed application that includes documentation necessary to review the claim. If the claim is denied, the
148	employer shall notify the covered individual of the reason for the denial.
149	(e) The employer must notify the Department, in a manner determined by the Department, within 3 business days
150	of a claim being approved under this chapter. The first payment of benefits to a covered individual must be made within 30
151	days after the employer has notified the Department of the approved claim. Subsequent payments must be made every 2
152	weeks.
153	§ 3704. Amount of benefits.
154	(a) The amount of family and medical leave benefits is to be determined as follows:
155	(1) The weekly benefit must be 80% of the covered individual's average weekly wages rounded up to the
156	nearest even $1.00 increment during the 12 months preceding submission of the application.
157	(2) The minimum weekly benefit may not be less than $100 a week, except that if the covered individual's
158	average weekly wage is less than $100 a week, the weekly benefit must be the covered individual's full wage.
159	(3) The maximum weekly benefit in 2026 and 2027 must be $900. In each year after 2027, the maximum
160	weekly benefit must increase in proportion to the annual average increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for All
161	Urban Consumers, Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington Metropolitan area that is published by the Bureau of Labor
162	Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. In each year after 2027, the period of change must be calculated
163	from October 2026 to the October before the start of the calendar year. When the Department determines a maximum
164	weekly benefit amount using the Consumer Price Index under this paragraph (a)(3), the amount must be rounded to the nearest even $5.00 increment as determined in the discretion of the Secretary.

166	(b) Family and medical leave benefits are not payable for less than 1 work day of covered leave taken in 1 work
167	week.
168	(c) The Department shall determine, by regulation, how benefits are to be calculated for covered individuals with
169	more than 1 source of wages and when 12 months of wages preceding the submission of application for benefits are not
170	available to the Department.
171	§ 3705. Contributions.
172	(a) Payroll contributions are authorized to finance the payment of benefits under this chapter. The Department
173	shall regulate the deduction, withholding, and payment of the contribution.
174	(b) Beginning on January 1, 2025, for each employee, an employer shall quarterly, or more frequently as regulated
175	by the Department, remit to the Fund contributions in the form and manner determined by the Department.
176	(1) The contribution rate for medical leave benefits is as follows:
177	a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for medical leave benefits as a percentage of wages is 0.4%.
178	b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for medical
179	leave benefits as a percentage of wages based on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not set the
180	contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of the
181	medical leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to 125% of the
182	cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar year, less the
183	amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.
184	(2) The contribution rate for family caregiving leave benefits is as follows:
185	a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for family caregiving leave benefits as a percentage of wages
186	is 0.08%.
187	b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for family
188	caregiving leave benefits based as a percentage of wages on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not
189	set the contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of
190	the family caregiving leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to
191	125% of the cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar
192	year, less the amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding
193	calendar year.
194	(3) The contribution rate for parental leave benefits is as follows:
195	a. For 2025 and 2026, the contribution rate for parental leave benefits as a percentage of wages is 0.32%.

196	b. For 2027, and each calendar year after 2027, the Department shall set the contribution rate for parental
197	leave benefits as a percentage of wages based on sound actuarial principles. The Department may not set the contribution rate higher than the rate necessary to obtain a total amount of contributions equal to 125% of the 198
199	parental leave benefits paid during the immediately preceding calendar year plus an amount equal to 125% of the
200	cost of administration of the payment of those benefits during the immediately preceding calendar year, less the
201	amount of net assets remaining in the Fund as of December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.
202	(c) Limitation on benefits and contribution rates; evidentiary standard.
203	(1) General. Notwithstanding a provision of this chapter to the contrary, this subsection controls with respect
204	to benefits available under, and contributions required by, this chapter.
205	(2) Contribution rate; limitation.
206	a. For purposes of this subsection, "contribution rate" means the sum of the contribution rate for medical,
207	family caregiving, and parental leave benefits.
208	b. If, after using the actuarial principles under § 3705(b) of this title, the Department determines that the
209	contribution rate would exceed 1.00%, paragraph (c)(3) of this section applies.
210	(3) Contribution redetermination. benefits reduction. If, under paragraph (c)(2)b. of this section, the
211	Department determines that the contribution rate effective as of the first day beginning on the next calendar year would
212	exceed 1.00%, effective as of and for such calendar year the Department shall reduce the percentage of average weekly
213	wages for employees from 80% to the lowest percentage of average weekly wages for employees as necessary to
214	compute a contribution rate that does not exceed 1.00%.
215	(4) Preservation of Fund balance. Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, after using the
216	actuarial principles under § 3705(b) of this title and considering other information deemed appropriate under the
217	circumstances by the Secretary, the Secretary may at any time reduce the percentage of average weekly wages for
218	employees to the lowest percentage of average weekly wages for employees as necessary to attempt to prevent the
219	projected balance of the Fund during the ensuing 12 month period from falling below a specific balance or other
220	actuarially sound measure adopted by the Department.
221	(5) Evidentiary standard. An allegation of abuse in the exercise of the discretion authorized by this section
222	must be established by clear and convincing evidence of actual abuse of discretion in the court then having primary
223	jurisdiction.

224	(d) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(1) of this section, an
225	employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect
226	to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the premium listed in subsection (b)(1) of this section.
227	(e) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(2) of this section, an
228	employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect
229	to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the premium listed in subsection (b)(2) of this section.
230	(f) From the wages of an employee for whom a contribution is required under subsection (b)(3) of this section, an
231	employer shall deduct not greater than 50% of the contribution required for the employee. However, an employer may elect
232	to pay all or any portion of the employee's share of the premium listed in subsection (b)(3) of this section.
233	(g) An employer's deduction from an employee's wages under this section may only be made concurrent with, and
234	proportionate to, the liability incurred by the employer and the payment of wages to the employee. The employer is liable
235	for the contribution at the time that wages are paid and shall remit the total contribution required under subsection (b) of
236	this section to the Fund. If the employer fails to deduct wages of an employee when the wages are paid, the employer
237	remains liable for the full amount of the contribution, including that amount not deducted from an employee's wages.
238	(h) A contribution that remains unpaid on the date it is due and payable, as determined by the Department, accrues
239	interest, at a rate determined by the Department by regulation, from and after the due date until payment plus the accrued
240	interest is received by the Fund. Interest collected under this section must be paid into the Fund.
241	(i)(1) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for medical leave benefits may not be
242	required to remit the contributions required under subsection (b)(1) of this section.
243	(2) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for family caregiving leave benefits
244	may not be required to remit the contributions required under subsection (b)(2) of this section.
245	(3) An employer with an approved private plan under § 3716 of this title for parental leave benefits may not
246	be required to remit the contributions required under subsection(b)(3) of this section.
247	(j) The Department may require from an employer a sworn or unsworn report with respect to employees of the
248	employer which the Department deems necessary for the effective administration of this chapter. Information provided to
249	the Department in the report must be held confidential and must not be published or be open to public inspection, other than
250	to employees of the Department, in a manner that reveals an employee's or employer's identity. However, an employer or
251	employer's legal representative must be supplied with information from the report for purposes related to this chapter, and
252	an employee or employee's legal representative must be supplied with information from the report that relates only to the employee for purposes related to this chapter.

254	(k) An employee and employer may opt to file a waiver of the payroll contributions required under this section
255	when an employee's work schedule or length of employment with the employer is not expected to meet the requirements
256	for eligibility for family and medical leave benefits.
257	(1) The employer shall provide notice to the employee that employee's work schedule or length of
258	employment with the employer is not expected to meet the requirements for eligibility for family and medical leave
259	benefits.
260	(2) The employee shall sign, and the employer shall submit to the Department, a form waiving the payroll
261	contributions required under this section because employee's work schedule or length of employment with the
262	employer is not expected to meet the requirements for eligibility for family and medical leave benefits.
263	(3) If, after an employee signs a waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section, the employee becomes eligible
264	for family and medical leave benefits, the employee shall sign, and the employer shall submit to the Department, a
265	form revoking the waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section. Deductions from wages may not begin until a waiver
266	is revoked.
267	(4) The Department shall adopt a form for the waiver under paragraph (k)(2) of this section and the revocation
268	of the waiver under paragraph (k)(3) of this section.
269	§ 3706. Reduced leave schedule.
270	(a) A covered individual may take covered leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule in which all of the
271	leave authorized under this chapter is not taken sequentially. Intermittent or reduced leave may be taken only when
272	medically necessary and supported by documentation as required by the certification requirements under § 3702 of this
273	title. Family and medical leave benefits for intermittent or reduced leave schedules must be prorated.
274	(b) The covered individual shall provide the employer with prior notice of the schedule on which the covered
275	individual will take the covered leave, to the extent practicable. Covered leave taken under this section may not result in a
276	reduction of the total amount of leave to which an employee is entitled beyond the amount of leave actually taken.
277	(c) Nothing in this section is to be construed to entitle a covered individual to more leave than required under §
278	3703 of this this title.
279	§ 3707. Leave and employment protection.
280	(a) A covered individual who exercises the covered individual's right to family and medical leave benefits shall,
281	on the expiration of the covered leave, be entitled to be restored by the employer to the position held by the covered
282	individual when the covered leave commenced, or to a position with equivalent seniority, status, employment benefits, pay.

283	and other terms and conditions of employment, including fringe benefits and service credits, which the covered individual
284	had been entitled to at the commencement of the covered leave.
285	(b) During covered leave, the employer shall maintain any health care benefits the covered individual had before
286	taking the leave for the duration of the leave as if the covered individual had continued in employment continuously from
287	the date the covered individual commenced the leave until the date the family and medical leave benefits terminate. The
288	covered individual shall continue to pay the covered individual's share of the cost of health care benefits as required before
289	the commencement of the leave.
290	(c) An employer who violates this section or § 3708 of this title is liable to an employee affected for all of the
291	following:
292	(1) Damages equal to all of the following:
293	a. The amount of any of the following:
294	1. Any wages or employment benefits denied or lost to the employee by reason of the violation.
295	2. In an action in which wages or employment benefits have not been denied or lost to the employee
296	any actual monetary losses sustained by the employee as a direct result of the violation, such as the cost of
297	providing care, up to a sum equal to 12 weeks of wages or employment benefits for the employee.
298	b. Interest on the amount under paragraph (c)(1)a. of this section, calculated at the legal rate.
299	c. An additional amount as liquidated damages equal to the sum of the amount described in paragraph
300	(c)(1)a. of this section and the interest under paragraph (c)(1)b. of this section. If an employer who has violated
301	this section or § 3708 of this title proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act or omission that violated this
302	section or § 3708 of this title was in good faith and that the employer had reasonable grounds for believing that the
303	act or omission was not a violation of this section or § 3708 of this title, the court may reduce the amount of the
304	liability to the amount and interest determined under paragraph(c)(1)a. and (c)(1)b. of this section, respectively.
305	(2) For equitable relief as may be appropriate, including employment, reinstatement, and promotion.
