DELAWARE STATE SENATE

141st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 16

EXTENDING A WARM WELCOME TO THE STUDENTS FROM JOE POLOWSKI HIGH SCHOOL OF TORGAU, GERMANY.

1 WHEREAS, on April 25, 1945 American soldiers met Soviet troops on the banks of the Elbe River
2 in Torgau, Germany; and

3 WHEREAS, one of those GIs was Private Joe Polowski, a taxi driver from Chicago; and

4 WHEREAS, Joe Polowski dedicated the rest of his life to peace and international understanding and 5 returned to Torgau many times and was buried there with honors by the United States military; and

6 WHEREAS, on the fiftieth anniversary of the end of World War II, the high school in Torgau was 7 named the Joe Polowski High School; and

8 WHEREAS, on April 26, 1996 a school partnership agreement was signed by Dr. Joseph P.
9 DeJohn, Brandywine School District Superintendent, and Eberhard Henke, Joe Polowski High School 10 Principal; and

11 WHEREAS, the Declaration of School Partnership stated: "One cornerstone of this relationship 12 shall be, as declared by Joe Polowski, 'the citizen diplomacy' which calls for the active involvement of 13 ordinary citizens in the matters affecting today's world"; and

14 WHEREAS, that partnership began with the exchange of students and teachers between the 15 Brandywine School District and Joe Polowski High School in the spring and summer of 1997.

16 NOW THEREFORE:

17 BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Senate of the 141st General Assembly, the House of 18 Representatives concurring therein, that a warm welcome is hereby extended to the following students and
