HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

146th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE BILL NO. 300
AS AMENDED BY
HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 2 AS AMENDED
BY HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE
AMENDMENT NO. 2
AND
HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 3

AN ACT TO AMEND TITLE 15 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO ENHANCED DISCLOSURE, REPORTING AND DISCLAIMER REQUIREMENTS IN DELAWARE'S CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAWS.

WHEREAS, the State of Delaware has a compelling interest in (1) providing voters with relevant information about where political campaign money comes from and how it is spent, so that voters can make informed choices in elections; (2) reducing the risk or appearance of undue influence by ensuring political spending is comprehensively disclosed; and (3) promoting compliance by candidates and political groups with campaign finance laws; and

WHEREAS, under existing law, persons who purchase political advertisements that expressly advocate for the election or defeat of a candidate are subject to disclosure requirements, but persons who purchase advertisements to influence elections without expressly advocating for a candidate are not; and

WHEREAS, as a result, Delaware has seen a proliferation of advertisements featuring candidates that are distributed during the campaign season and are intended to influence elections, but are not required to be reported under existing law; and

WHEREAS, the cost of Delaware political campaigns has been comparatively low because Delaware has no major network television stations, and Delaware campaigns traditionally rely on door-to-door campaign efforts, local advertising and direct mail efforts that are comparatively less expensive than major media markets in surrounding states, and for that reason, disclosure of expenditures intended to influence elections should begin at an amount that is reasonable and intended to promote fulsome disclosure of those expenditures; and

WHEREAS, Delaware political campaigns have long relied on direct contact and communication between candidates and Delawareans at community events, churches, schools, businesses and neighborhood meetings, and to preserve that tradition of open and direct communication, it is important that those who are attempting to influence Delaware elections disclose their identity and efforts in a manner that allows voters to evaluate and measure the statements made by and interests of those third parties in a manner that is prompt and informative.

NOW, THEREFORE:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE:

If, notwithstanding the execution of such a statement, such candidate’s campaign nevertheless receives more than $2,000 in contributions or expends more than $2,000 (including any contributions or expenditures by the candidate) before the end of the year in which the election for such office is held, the candidate shall within 7 days thereafter, so notify the Commissioner, and shall cause to be filed all reports that would otherwise have been required theretofore under this chapter.

b. The full name and mailing address of each of the officers of the committee, one of whom shall be an individual named as its treasurer;

c. A concise statement of the committee's purposes or goals;

d. The name, office sought, and party affiliation of any candidate whom the committee is supporting or opposing, to the extent such information is known as of the date of filing; and, if the committee is supporting the entire ticket of any party, the name of the party; and

The political committee may rely on such notification, and should the notification provided by the representative of the entity be inaccurate or misleading, the person or persons responsible for the notification, and not the political committee which received the contribution, shall be liable therefor. A ratable portion of the contribution by the corporation, partnership or other entity shall be deemed to be a contribution under this chapter to the political committee by each such person who owns a 50 percent or greater interest in the entity, shall be included within the limit imposed by this section on individual contributions, and shall be so included in the reports filed by the candidate committee with the Commissioner under § 8030 of this title.

(c) The Commissioner may adopt regulations regarding the size, placement and duration of the foregoing statements as the same shall apply to specific forms of campaign advertisements. In connection therewith, the Commissioner may modify or amend the foregoing statements to conform to the requirements of a particular medium (i.e., television, radio, print, Internet), and may by regulation create exemptions from the requirements hereunder where compliance is not reasonably practicable due to the small size or short duration of such advertisements. In all events, however, campaign advertisements having the same medium and duration (for example, 15-second radio advertisements or Internet advertisements having less than 200 characters) shall be subject to the same requirements.

Section 6. Amend § 8023, Title 15 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through as follows:

§ 8023. Independent expenditures.

(a) All campaign literature, advertising (except on items with a surface of less than 9 square inches) or other message paid for by independent expenditures shall prominently and at all times display the following statement:

~~(3) The expenditure is based on information provided to the person making the expenditure directly or indirectly by the candidate or the candidate's agents about the candidate's plans, projects or needs; provided, that the candidate or the candidate's agent is aware that the other person has made or is planning to make expenditures advocating the candidate's election.~~

Section 7. Amend § 8030(d)(2), Title 15 of the Delaware Code by making insertions as shown by underlining and deletions as shown by strike through as follows:

(2) Full name and mailing address of each person who has made contributions to such political committee (including the purchase of tickets for events such as dinners, luncheons, rallies and similar fund-raising events, whether or not the tickets were used by the person who paid for them) during the election period in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $100, the total of all contributions from such person during the election period, and the amount and date of all contributions from such person during the reporting period. If the person who made the contribution is not an individual, and the total amount of contributions by such person during the election period exceeds $1,200, then the report shall also include the name and address of one responsible party for such person;

Section 8. Amend § 8031, Title 15 of the Delaware Code by making insertions as shown by underlining and deletions as shown by strike through as follows:

Such report shall be filed in accordance with the deadlines provided under § 8030 of this title, and shall contain the information required under § 8030 of this title for all contributions received by and made by such person. Such report shall also include a list of every person to whom any disbursement has been made during the election period in connection with an independent expenditure, together with the date, amount and purpose of such independent expenditure and a statement under penalty of perjury whether each such expenditure has been made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, any candidate or any candidate committee or agent of either.~~

~~(b) Any person who makes an independent expenditure aggregating more than $100 after the 20th day, but more than 1 day, before any election shall, within 24 hours after such independent expenditure is made, file with the~~

~~Commissioner a report under oath or affirmation with respect to such independent expenditure that contains the information required by § 8030 of this title and by this section.~~

§ 8031. Special reports – Third-party advertisements.

(a) Any person other than a candidate committee or political party who makes an expenditure for any third-party advertisement that causes the aggregate amount of expenditures for third-party advertisements made by such person to exceed $500 during an election period shall file a third-party advertisement report with the Commissioner. The report shall be filed under penalty of perjury and shall include the following:

(1) The information required under § 8005(1) of this title with respect to the person making such expenditure;

(5) The aggregate amount of all contributions made to the person who made the expenditure.

(b) For purposes of this section, a reporting period shall begin on the day after the previous reporting period under § 8030 or this section, whichever is later. However, if the person making the expenditure hereunder was not previously required to file any reports during the election period under § 8030 or this section, then the reporting period shall begin on the date the first contribution is received or expenditure made by or on behalf of such person in the current election period. A reporting period shall end on the date of the expenditure set forth in paragraph (a).

(c) Any person other than an individual that makes a contribution for which disclosure is required under paragraph (a)(3) shall provide written notification in accordance with § 8012(e) of this chapter to the person filing the report hereunder. The person filing the report may rely on such notification, and should the notification provided by the representative of the entity be inaccurate or misleading, the person or persons responsible for the notification, and not the person filing the report, shall be liable therefor.

(d) If the expenditure is made more than 30 days before a primary or special election or 60 days before a general election, the report required under this section shall be filed within 48 hours after such expenditure is made. If the expenditure is made 30 days or less before a primary or special election or 60 days or less before an election, such report shall be filed with the Commissioner within 24 hours after such expenditure is made.
