SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 15

A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE.

1	WHEREAS, during the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923, one million five hundred thousand men, women, and
2	children of Armenian descent, and hundreds of thousands of Assyrian and Greek descent, lost their lives at the hands of the
3	Ottoman Turkish Empire in its attempt to systematically eliminate the Armenian race , while hundreds of thousands had
4	become homeless and stateless refugees; and
5	WHEREAS, April 24, 1915, is globally observed as the commencement of the Armenian Genocide; and
6	WHEREAS, By 1923, these crimes against humanity not only resulted in the killing of unprecedented numbers of
7	innocent peoples, but also had the consequence of permanently removing all traces of the Christian Armenians and other
8	targeted peoples from their historic homelands of more than three millennia, and enriching the perpetrators with the lands
9	and other property of the victims of these crimes, including the usurpation of several thousand churches; and
10	WHEREAS, by consistently remembering and forcefully condemning the atrocities committed against the
11	Armenians, and honoring the survivors as well as other victims of similar heinous conduct, we guard against repetition of
12	such acts of genocide and provide the American public with a greater understanding of history; and
13	WHEREAS, the United States is on record as having officially recognized the Armenian Genocide in the United
14	States government's May 28, 1951, written statement to the International Court of Justice regarding the Reservations to the
15	Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, through President Ronald Reagan's April 22,
16	1981, Proclamation No. 4838, and by Congressional legislation including House of Representatives Joint Resolution 148
17	adopted on April 8, 1975, and House of Representatives Joint Resolution 247 adopted on September 10, 1984; and
18	WHEREAS, even prior to the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the United
19	States has a record of having sought to justly and constructively address the consequences of the Ottoman Empire's
20	intentional destruction of the Armenian people, including through Concurrent Resolution 12 adopted on February 9, 1916,
21	Resolution 359 adopted on May 11, 1920, and President Woodrow Wilson's November 22, 1920, decision entitled, "The
22	Frontier between Armenia and Turkey"; and

WHEREAS, in response to the Genocide and at the behest of the President Woodrow Wilson and the U.S. State Department, the Near East Relief organization was founded and was provided unprecedented complete access to all U.S. government documents and files concerning the plight of Christian minorities; and

WHEREAS, Near East Relief's efforts, with the active participation of the First State, resulted in delivering 117 million dollars of assistance between 1915 and 1930, including the delivery of food, clothing, and materials for shelter, setting up refugee camps, clinics, hospitals, and orphanages; and

WHEREAS, the generous philanthropy of the American people directly resulted in the salvation of the Christian Armenian and Assyrian refugees nation from being completely annihilated by the Genocide by saving more than one million refugees, including more than one hundred thirty thousand orphans through their humanitarian assistance; and

32 WHEREAS, Delaware is home to a small, but vibrant Armenian-American community who have enriched our 33 state through their leadership and contribution in business, agriculture, academia, government, and the arts; and

34 WHEREAS, Armenians in Delaware, and throughout the world, have not been provided with justice for the crimes

35 perpetrated against the Armenian nation despite the fact that a century has passed since the crimes were first committed, but

36 remain resolved and their spirit continues to thrive a century after their near annihilation; now, therefore; and
