21 1.3. Annexation of Territory.

22 1.3.1. Procedure to extend boundaries.

23 The Town may, from time to time, extend its boundaries in accordance with Title 22, Chapter 1, Section 101 (22 Del. C. § 24 101) through the following annexation processes:

25 a. In the case where annexation is petitioned by all owners of all property considered for annexation, no election shall be 26 required. For an annexation petition not requiring an election, such petition shall be processed in accordance with 27 procedures established for amendments to the zoning map, specified by State law and by ordinance. All annexation 28 petitions shall be processed concurrently with the rezoning of the property considered for annexation and shall be subject to 29 public hearing before Town Council. Public notice shall be completed in accordance with the Code provisions of the Town
30 of Townsend relating to amendment of the zoning map.

31 b. In the case where annexation is not petitioned by all owners of all property considered for annexation, such annexation
32 shall be subject to an election, as follows:

33 (i) In order to extend the boundaries of the Town of Townsend, Council shall adopt a resolution
34 proposing the inclusion of all property considered for annexation within the limits of The Town of Townsend and 35 calling for a special election to be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the adoption of 36 the resolution, in accordance with Title 22, Chapter 1, Section 101, Delaware Code. The resolution shall contain a 37 description of all property considered for annexation, the date of the election, and the place or places of said
38 election. The resolution shall be published in at least two (2) issues of a newspaper of general circulation within 39 the Town of Townsend at least two (2) weeks prior to the day of said election.

40 (ii) The annexation election shall be held by the Town's election officers. Each owner of the property 41 considered for annexation shall be entitled to one (1) vote. Owners of real estate in common shall be entitled to 42 one (1) vote each. Life tenants shall be entitled to one (1) vote each but the holders of the remainder interest or 43 similar interest subject to the life estate shall not be entitled to vote. Corporations, firms or associations shall be 44 entitled to one (1) vote, the same as private persons.

45 More than one (1) annexation election may be held on the same day; however, the elections shall be separate.

46 (iii) The Council of the Town of Townsend shall provide the ballots and shall bear the cost of holding 47 such annexation elections. The ballots shall briefly indicate the property proposed for annexation and shall provide 48 two (2) boxes on the ballot beside which shall appear the words "FOR inclusion within The Town of Townsend," 49 and "AGAINST inclusion within The Town of Townsend." Each voter shall indicate their preference by making a 50 mark within the box beside the words expressing their preference.

51 (iv) For the annexation election, the polls shall open at 11:00 a.m. to and remain open until each eligible
52 voter has cast their vote or until 8:00 p.m., whichever occurs first. When the polls are closed the election officers 53 shall publicly count the votes and forthwith certify to the clerk of the council the number of votes cast for and 54 against inclusion within the town limits. At the next regular or special meeting of the council the mayor and 55 council shall receive the results of the election and make the same a part of the minutes of said meeting.

56 (v) If a majority of the votes cast in an annexation election are in favor of the inclusion of that property, 57 the council may thereupon adopt a resolution annexing said property and including same within the limits of the 58 Town of Townsend. Upon the adoption of a resolution of annexation a copy thereof certified by the clerk of 59 council and a plot of the area annexed shall be forthwith filed for record with the Recorder of Deeds of New Castle
60 County, and the area so annexed shall for all purposes thenceforth be part of the Town of Townsend.

61 (vi) If a majority of the votes cast in an annexation election shall be against the inclusion of that property
62 within the limits of the Town of Townsend, the proposed annexation of said property shall be declared to have 63 failed. Nothing in this Charter shall prohibit the Council from resubmitting a proposal for annexation to the 64 eligible voters for said property, or any portion thereof, under the authority of this section and in accordance with 65 the provisions thereof.
