HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
148th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE BILL NO. 211

AN ACT TO AMEND TITLE 10 OF THE DELAWARE CODE RELATING TO JUVENILE DELINQUENCY
PROCEEDINGS AND THE USE OF RESTRAINTS ON A CHILD.

1 WHEREAS, juvenile delinquency proceedings in Delaware’s Family Court are rehabilitative in nature and in the 2 interest of rather than against the child; and

3 WHEREAS, Delaware law prohibits a child alleged to be delinquent from being placed in secure detention unless
4 no means less restrictive of the child’s liberty will assure the child’s appearance for court and detention is necessary based 5 on the nature of the offense or for the protection of the public; and

6 WHEREAS, the mandatory or indiscriminate shackling of juveniles in custody during their court appearances is 7 contrary to the rehabilitative purpose of the juvenile justice system; and

8 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has held the mandatory shackling of adult defendants
9 unconstitutional because visible shackling undermines the presumption of innocence and can interfere with an accused’s
10 ability to communicate with their attorney; and

11 WHEREAS, the American Bar Association has adopted a resolution urging all federal, state, local, territorial and 12 tribal governments to adopt a presumption against the use of restraints on juveniles in court and permitting the use of 13 restraints only when necessary to prevent flight or harm to the juvenile or others; and

14 WHEREAS, the American Academy of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry has issued a policy statement opposing 15 mandatory or routine shackling of juveniles as “demeaning, humiliating and stigmatizing” of juveniles and a practice that 16 adds to the trauma many justice-involved youth have already experienced; and

17 WHEREAS, many other child advocacy organizations – including the Child Welfare League of America, the 18 American Orthopsychiatric Association, the National Center for Mental Health and Juvenile Justice, the National 19 Association of Counsel for Children and the National Juvenile Defender Center – all oppose the indiscriminate use of 20 physical restraints on youth appearing in court; and

21 WHEREAS, the General Assembly believes the use of physical restraints on youth appearing in court should occur
22 only in those rare cases where no less restrictive alternatives will prevent flight or physical harm to the child or other
23 courtroom participants;

24 NOW, THEREFORE:

25 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE:

26 Section 1. Amend Subchapter III, Chapter 9, Title 10 of the Delaware Code by making insertions as shown by 27 underlining as follows:

28 § 1007B. Use of restraints on a child.

29 (a) Instruments of restraint, such as handcuffs, chains, irons, or straitjackets, cloth and leather restraints, and other
30 similar items, may not be used on a child during a court proceeding and must be removed either prior to or after the child
31 has entered the courtroom for an appearance before the court unless the court finds both of the following conditions are 32 met:

33 (1) The use of restraints is necessary due to one of the following factors:

34 a. The juvenile is presently uncontrollable and constitutes a serious and evident danger to 35 himself or herself or others;

36 b. There are safety risks for the youth or staff in the court room, including but not limited to the 37 presence of known gang associates, or other individuals including relatives, who could pose a risk to 38 youth and staff;

39 c. The juvenile has a history of non-compliance with law enforcement, court security, and DYRS
40 staff, including evidence of prior attempts to escape custody, disruptive behavior at a detention facility,
41 and other relevant factors.

42 (2) There are no less restrictive alternatives to restraints that will prevent flight or physical harm to the 43 child or another person, including, but not limited to, the presence of court personnel, law enforcement officers, or 44 bailiffs.

45 (b) In making a determination that restraints are necessary, the court may receive and consider such information
46 and evidence it believes relevant to the findings required by subsection (a) of this section. The court shall provide the child
47 or child's attorney an opportunity to be heard as part of any hearing to determine whether the use of restraints is necessary.
48 If restraints are ordered, the court shall make written findings of fact in support of the order.

49 (c) Any use of restraints shall allow the child limited movement of the hands to read and handle documents and 50 writings necessary to the hearing.

SYNOPSIS

This Act limits the use of shackles and other physical restraints on children appearing in juvenile delinquency proceedings except in situations where the court determines that the use of restraints is necessary and there are no less restrictive alternatives that will prevent flight or physical harm to the child or other courtroom participants.
