SYNOPSIS

This bill expands upon Senate Bill No. 90 of this General Assembly, known as "Rylie's Law," by classifying pain, anxiety, or depression, if related to a terminal illness, as a qualifying condition in the Delaware Medical Marijuana Act for patients under the age 18, who will still be restricted to using CBD and oil products. The bill also classifies terminal illness in adults as a qualifying condition. This Act shall be known as "Bob's Bill".
