20	Section 2. Amend § 6103, Title 15 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
21	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
22	§ 6103. Application for registration: felony conviction reviews.
23	(a) The county department of elections office of the Department of Elections shall not register any applicant as a
24	qualified voter until it has been determined that such applicant is lawfully eligible to vote. The county department office
25	shall, for each registration application, perform an electronic inquiry against the Criminal Justice Information System
26	(CJIS) and other data to determine if the applicant has been convicted of a felony. If the applicant has not been convicted or
27	a felony and is otherwise eligible to register to vote pursuant to the Delaware Constitution and this title, the applicant shall
28	be registered.
29	(b) If a review by the county department of elections of the Department of Elections shows that the
30	applicant has been convicted of a disqualifying felony, the registration application shall be denied and the applicant shall
31	not be permitted to register.
32	(c) If the applicant has been convicted of a felony which is not disqualifying but the felony conviction occurred
33	within 5 years preceding the date of the application applicant has not served the required sentence of imprisonment, parole
34	work release, early release, supervised custody, and probation and community supervision, then the registration application
35	shall be denied.
36	(d) If the results of the (CJIS) CJIS inquiry cannot determine the eligibility of the applicant, the respective county
37	department of elections office of the Department of Elections shall forward the application to the State Election
38	Commissioner.
39	Section 3. Amend § 6104, Title 15 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
40	insertions as shown by underline as follows:
41	§ 6104. Commissioner's review of application.
42	(a) If the applicant has not been convicted of a felony which is not disqualifying, within the 5 years preceding the
43	date of the application, the State Election Commissioner shall request that both the Office of State Court Collections
44	Enforcement (OSCCE) and the Department of Correction separately conduct a review and data search of all records relating
45	to the applicant the State Election Commissioner shall request that the Department of Correction review its records to
46	determine if all sentences of imprisonment and community supervision imposed upon the applicant have been fully
47	discharged .

(b) Upon request by the State Election Commissioner, the OSCCE shall review its records to determine if the applicant has paid all financial obligations assessed against such applicant. Upon request by the State Election

- Commissioner, the Department of Correction shall review its records to determine if all sentences of imprisonment and community supervision imposed upon the applicant have been fully discharged.
 - (c) Where it has been determined that the applicant was convicted of a felony which is not disqualifying, has fully discharged all imposed sentences, and otherwise meets all constitutional requirements, the applicant shall be permitted to register as a qualified voter. Each stage of the review process shall be completed within a reasonable time.
 - (d) Where the State Election Commissioner determines from information received from OSCCE or from the Department of Correction that there are financial obligations which have not been paid; or that not all sentences have been the applicant has not fully discharged; or all sentences or that other questions or issues relating to the applicant's eligibility are still unresolved, the Commissioner shall deny the application for registration. Upon denial of an application under this section, the applicant shall be notified by mail.

SYNOPSIS

This Act eliminates the financial bar to voter registration and makes technical changes to bring the chapter into conformity with § 2, article V of the Constitution of this State, which no longer requires a 5 year waiting period before a person convicted of a non-disqualifying felony may register to vote.

This Act also makes technical corrections to conform existing law to the guidelines of the Delaware Legislative Drafting Manual.
